Sweepstakes! RONALD GRIFFIN, Central's super scientist, won top honors at the 9th Annual Central Arizona Regional Science Fair plus a trip to Seattle's May 2-5 National Science Fair. Five other Bobcats won enviable prizes at the Tempe competition. Ron's gadget treats ". . . Sonoluminescence and Calculation of Bond Energy and Insonation", to put it briefly!

Arizona, We Salute You!

OVER 2500 Central High School Bobcats gather on the West Quad to observe Arizona's 50th Anniversary—February 14, 1912-1962.

S-H-A-K-E, RATTLE 'N ROLL! Jimmy Walker introduces his idea of The Twist to dubious partner Linda Vaupell at Boys' Alliance Stardust Ball. It was labeled "Eternal Evening" by Alliance and a "workout" by Jim!

Nothing Fancy, Just Crazy!

WE'LL LONG remember 1961-62 at Central for its wild demonstrations of fun! Back to our childhood we regressed for many of the zany stunts introduced. Anything went, within the realms of propriety, but it had parents wondering and teachers shaking their heads. Sample: Who was Fred Tish? Yak, yak! Ask Wayne Satz, who invented the mythical hero! Rock 'n Roll remained to aid and abet The Twist. Bubble gum dominated faces of bubble-topped coeds; soap bubblers thrived.

Strange, Indeed Those '62 Fads!

IT WAS a strange 1961-62. Fads and fancies drove teachers almost wild! Bubble gum, checkered tennis shoes, silver streaks in dark hair. And the omni present Yo-Yos.

Blame Jacqueline Kennedy for the bouffant tresses craze. But little girl faces peered out from monstrous masses of bubbled, lacquered hair something like cotton candy. Then came The Twist. Banned at some schools, Bobcats still gyrated madly to loud, sometimes weird music. Marbles, jacks, jump ropes also had their place in this strange resurgence of seniors to childhood days. Oh, well . . . it's possible tomorrow's problems will make us grow up fast!

AH,SO! Diane Rosenzweig puts the final touch on Corrine Hancock's Bubble. Diane's sports streaks of silver.

AIM, FIRE! Sophistication in reverse! Marble maniacs here include Inman, Stitt, Zimmerman, Everitt, Jorgensen, Pharis, Orwig. But then, there were plenty of others specializing in YoYos, tiddly-winks, and, yes, bubble gum.

Dig That Crazy Science Floor!

PATIENT students watched and waited while Science Room 412 underwent transformation from a series of compartments to a huge chemistry lab and class room. Here Science Instructor Gurr gets down to earth while workmen Almindinger and Padgett dig a place for needed gas and water pipes.

Schools Aren't Built Overnight!

ADDING to Central's large capacity meant months of planning, studying, and cost estimating before the actual building could begin. Here is typical scene as addition to cafeteria gets its metal roof supports, cement floor, and a bundle of lumber to start another phase of the construction. Modern tractors helped get the big job done.

Geometric Patterns can be found if you look for them. Picture is of north entrance to Building Nine. Terry Jones is the subject.

CAMPUS BEAUTIFUL Sun and clouds combine to lend glamour to Central's campus, south of circular library.

HELLO . . . and goodbye! Our Principal Carter greets his successor, Mr. Waters, who will guide Central's destiny. Dr. Carter goes to North Phoenix High.

Carl
Estimado Ward,
Le deseo buena suerte
en su nueva cabeza. Vaya con dios.
Adios,
Carl Carter

Administration

PRINCIPAL

STEP LIVELY! He who hesitates gets a bruised heel! Life at Central is constantly on the move, as one sees.

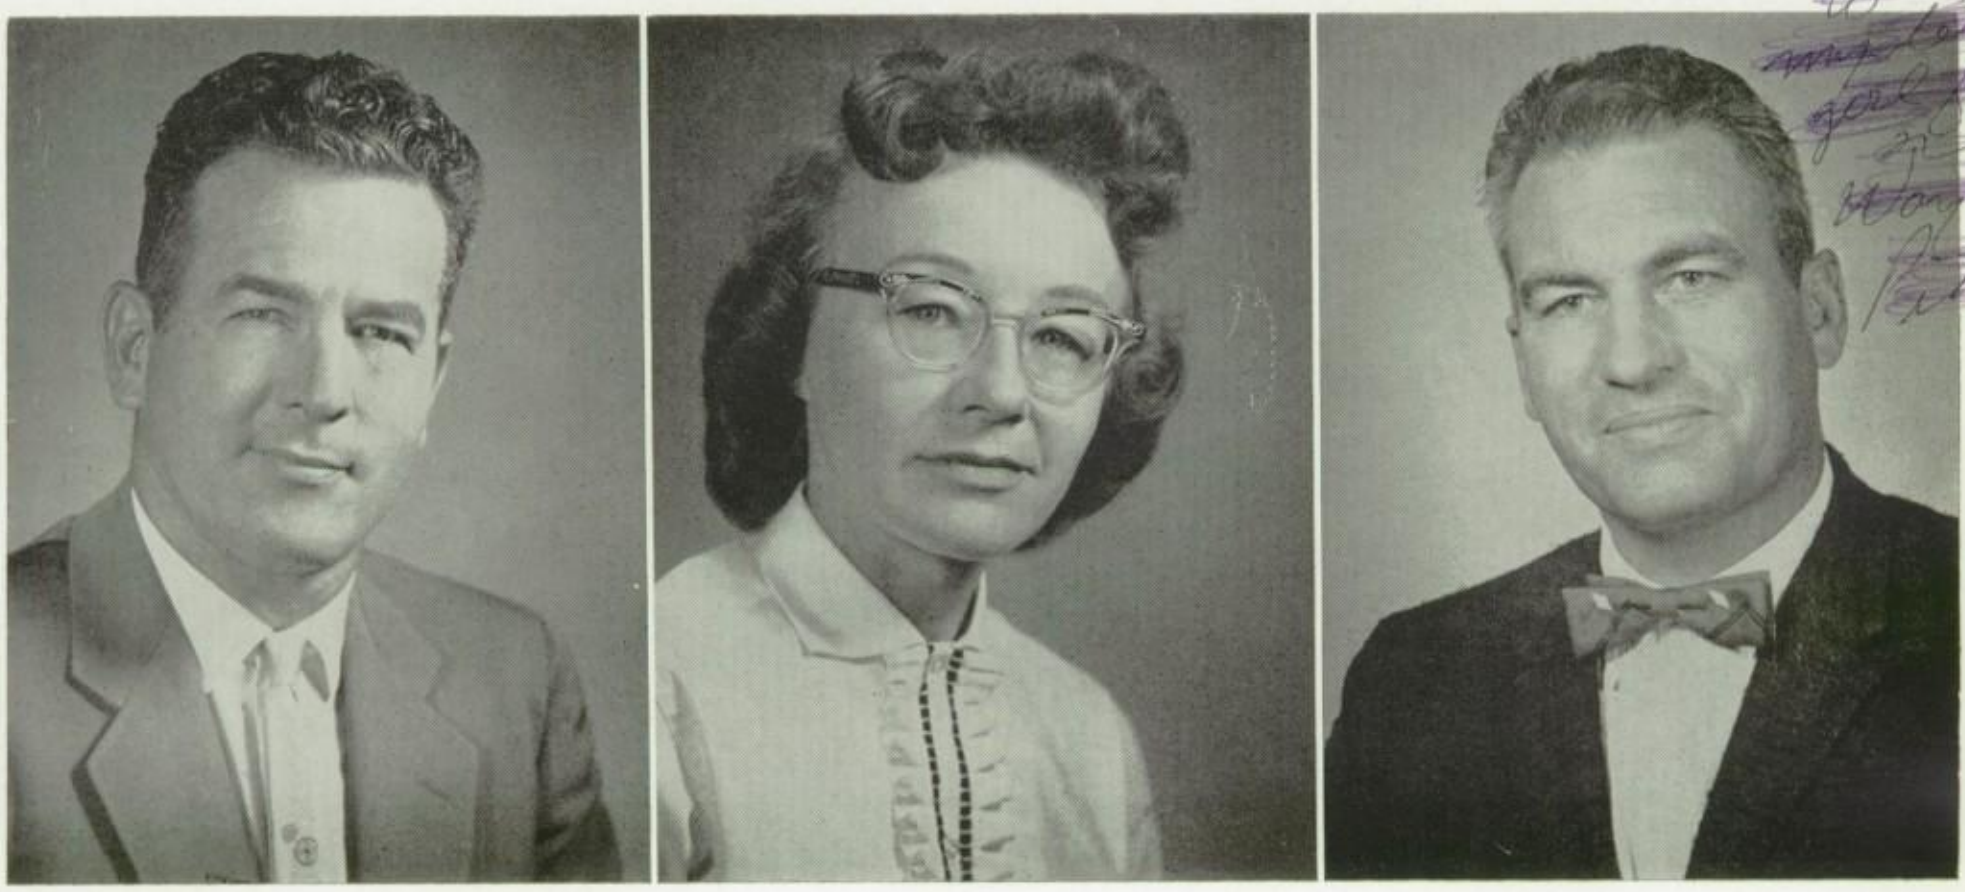
Expert Guides Teach Growth

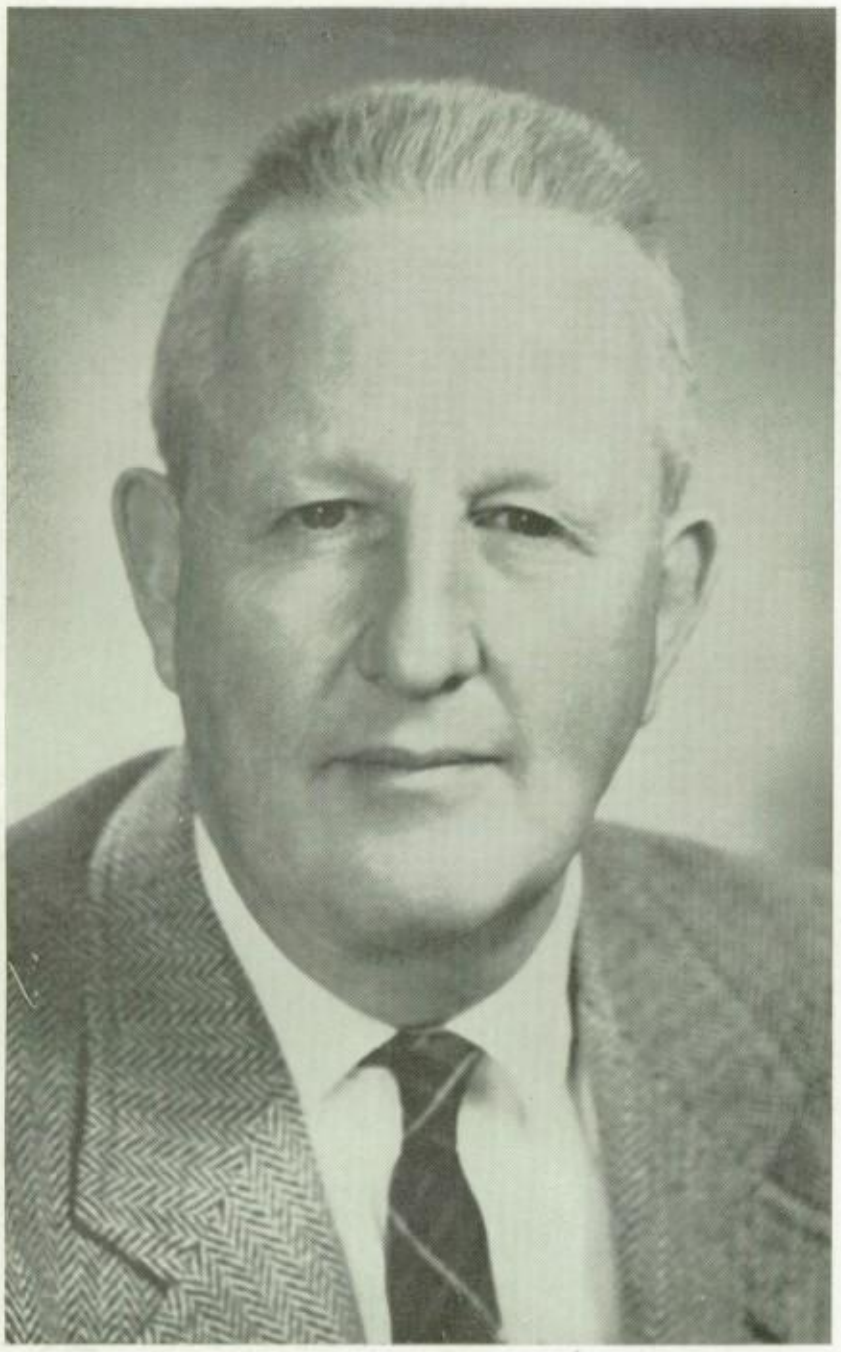
DR. CARTER, principal, and Assistant Principal Gates talk over one of many problems that have kept them busy and Central progressive in the years they have headed the administration.

LIFE AT CENTRAL would be dull indeed were it not for the sage guidance of experienced and sympathetic advisers. Far from being ogres of opposition to all things exciting or pleasant, the Administration often takes the lead in planning and making feasible interesting and worthwhile activities. A few appreciate it!

Lines must be drawn to avoid unhappy reactions, but the very restraint many student leaders complain against may be the means by which a plan of action would succeed rather than flop. School is a place of learning, where leadership is encouraged and reason held dear. There's no substitute for genuine guidance!

FRIENDS of every student are Boys' Adviser William Ball, Dean of Girls Lucille Risley, and Assistant Principal Wayne Pitts. Their efforts help smooth away many a perplexing problem in student government and worthy club project.





DR. HOWARD C. SEYMOUR
Superintendent

They Build For Today

Into Phoenix they come, by car, train, airplane and bus. And they bring the kids with them! Newcomers to the Valley of the Sun are more than welcome, but our Board of Education considers the population growth with mixed feelings. Schools must be prepared to handle the hordes, and schools there will be. Old schools have been enlarged, two new high schools open next fall, and other sites for future schools are being selected.

The growth problem, though complex, has not kept Phoenix from maintaining educational standards with the nation's best. Much credit goes to the Board for its thoughtful handling of system problems while maintaining those high levels of achievement.

Board of Education: John H. Armer, Mrs. F. A. Bons, Frank Haze Burch, Rev. Wm. D. Bostrom, Dr. Trevor G. Browne.

BEND DOWN, BROTHER! Class of '63 is absorbed with Iowa State Achievement Test, second time around, since they'd had it in 1959. BELOW: Schedule changes are in demand that first week of the semester. Scene is at Registrar's Office during lunch hour. Any normal day is a busy one at this Central High School action center.

Step Lively There! We're Busy!

It's in the American tradition that a woman has the right to change her mind. And at Central High, the same right has been claimed by the boys as well! Shuffling of schedules, readjustments, and shifting of curricula are routine. Luckily our Bobcat scholars are given expert guidance by counselors and Registrar's Office personnel, or many a tear would fall.

Work never slows down at the Registrar's Office, even after the super rush of semester starts and endings. Class loads must be regulated, tardies checked, study hall progress evaluated for those who seem to be slipping in grades . . . and then there are transcripts of records to be sent colleges and recommendations to future employers. That's just a sample!

With A Smile! As Always . . .

HAPPINESS is a state of mind. That's why you'll always see Central's office workers looking pleasant, regardless of the pressures placed upon them by unreasonable students, parents, and even (at times) teachers who fail to realize how problems can build up behind those counters. And the happy looks pay dividends: visitors to the offices leave with smiles, too! Central High is unusually fortunate, many feel, in its choice of secretaries who do so much with, too often, a minimum of thanks.

Always Service With Smiles . . .

BOOKSTORE Manager Betty Pretzer and her assistant, Clara Tanner, know how to win friends and keep them: with smiles (and the best student prices in town for special school needs!)

If you want service with a smile, go no further than the Campus Bookstore! Along with that smile you can get a bargain in books, paper, or whatever your immediate supply needs. Central's Shopping Center is just one example of special helps available to the student body. Most of the service this fine department renders is unappreciated by students.

Should you be a club officer, the Bookstore will help you take care of your treasury, seeing that accounts are cleared through proper channels and that you get full value when you wish to make a group purchase. Game tickets, publications subscriptions, and a market for your used textbooks are other services meant to help life at Central be more pleasant for you.

BARGAIN HUNTERS at the noon rush know the Bookstore's the best place to buy pens, paper, and rulers. Here Cheryl Luckie pays for a new ballpoint pen while other Bobcats wait to buy football tickets, subscriptions.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—Sitting: Schatt, Orwig, Heflin, Hunter, Black, Mr. Felton (sponsor), Driskell. Standing: Walker, Webb, Imnan, Jacobson, Bruce, Gentry, Weiss, Arnote, Klein. Group met every day for an hour.

If You Want Anything Done . . .

The foundation of a good government is its Executive Department, the branch which determines what, if anything, gets done. Central's Executive Committee this year provided a solid basis for progress, while giving equal representation to opposing viewpoints. The year 1961-62 saw more concrete examples of capable, efficient student government than in any previous year. The student Executive Committee was a fair sounding board for new ideas, projects, and activities, plus an important channel of communication between the student body and administration.

As school opened in September, student body President Ray Hunter presented 10 basic goals, and aimed every project during the year toward fulfilling the promises set forth in those goals. He asked for cooperation, and got it.

GUIDANCE BOARD: Linda Smith, Ray Hunter, Phil Towers, Peg Gelt, Bob Blanchard.

Leaders . . .

STUDENT BODY officers include: Ray Hunter, president; Carolyn Black, secretary; Peg Heflin, financial secretary, and Jim Walker, vice-president.

On The Job With Diligence

It's been an epic year in Central High student government. Created was Cafeteria Committee, a step in self-government which has the trappings of all which is democratic; this was the year a dreamer named Ken Weiss helped the Executive Committee present the "impossible" project: an all-school carnival. It will also be remembered as the year student government bought 91 American flags for the school, to boost patriotism and love of country in each classroom.

Many of the widely-publicized activities will remain as signs of student government's work during this past year. But it often remains for the small but important day-to-day administration of student body business to show just how good a student government has been running. Few students could realize the tremendous success the democratic, committee system of government has enjoyed at Central. They might not be aware of the skill and diligence with which the officers accomplished their tasks during the daily meetings. They could not know of the extra hours student leaders gave to improving student government with legislation, ideas, and raw labor.

First Come Responsibility

TRUE DEMOCRACY must begin with responsible representation. Student Senate is Central's laboratory in democracy. Unusual in high school student governments, the Senate is fashioned much like our national government, so students can get an important lesson in American government while serving as high school senators.

Under the determined leadership of Senate President Jim Walker and the watchful eye of Sponsor Elmer Felton, the Senate initiated important reform measures, giving the "man in the classroom" a larger and more important voice in his student government.

In February, the Senate provided for student body-initiated recall of officers, and impeachment of any officer guilty of detrimental acts. Many Arizona high schools have inquired about the Central High Senate, and at least two are considering adopting the system. The Senate was visited by delegations from West and North high schools this year.

Throughout a year of controversial legislation, senators maintained their individuality and decorum, voting on the merits of the proposed bill, not on whims of any ruling bloc.

A Senate first were new Student Senate notebooks, containing mimeographed copies of all legislation, minutes and procedures. They were kept up to date with frequent supplements, aimed at keeping each senator informed of all business relating to student government.

Freedom's Heritage At Work

SENATE ACTION this year included approval of criterion for the Guidance Board to use in punishment, revocation of outmoded legislation previously passed, and passage of minimum citizenship requirements for holding an elective office at Central High School.

When time for extra-curricular work came, the Senate participated — this year's successful Talent Show and AFS Stock Sale got much-needed support and enthusiasm from senators. Student Government is dedicated to the preserving and enriching of freedom's heritage.

GIRLS' LEAGUE CABINET—(Standing) Cressler, Taylor, Dunn, Peden, Maxon, Buhler, Cohn, Blair, Goodrich, Price, Schmit. SEATED: Buehler, Blumberg, Cohen, Meyers, Driskell, Evans, Brinkoetter, Waters, and Lay.

Helping, They Also Had Fun

Helping out and having fun, one of the most active organizations on campus is Girls' League, kept busy with an annual fashion show, mother-daughter tea, charity drives for their Thanksgiving and Christmas families, and their big April formal. Girls' League class officers and four over-all officers form the executive Cabinet, which initiates the big projects and plans for the formal.

Each of the class councils serves as a part of the over-all committee, each working as an organized part of all Girls' League activities. The separate councils do have their own activities, in addition to cooperating on group projects. The League's purpose is to assist those in need of its help.

Colossal cookies set a new tradition for Senior Girls' Leaguers, and girls had two Twirp Days to serve the "gentlemen" this year!

As in past years, two senior girls were recipients of $200 scholarships, awarded on the basis of need and outstanding Girls' League service. Such interest has been aroused, more emphasis will go to scholarships, leaders say.

LEAGUE OFFICERS—Mrs. Risley, Marcia Brinkoeteer, treasurer; Joanna Driskell, president; Jana Mayers, secretary; and Cheryl Evans, vice president.

Yummy! SENIOR GIRLS' League Colossal Cookie Sales established a tradition to be carried out yearly by Senior League Council. Every special occasion from Christmas to Halloween promises a Colossal Cookie Sale. Girls advertised this event with giant bows and fancy freckles. Busy bakers (from left) Marti Blumberg, Sue Peden, Claudia Wilcox and Helen Edwards. You might not get a full meal from one of the super-duper cookies, but two of 'em will keep you munching for most of the lunch hour! Money earned from sales went to worthy causes.

BOYS' ALLIANCE, meeting to discuss another money-raising project, include (front) Tuckler, Wallace, Grodzinsky, Hess, Merkle, Meyerson. BACK: Guy, Schatt, H. Gaisford, Spector, Ryan, S. Gaisford, Bayne, Hauskins.

Boys' Alliance—Always Busy

WANT TO seal your I.D. card in plastic? Dance under the autumn stars? Buy a Bobcat derby? If those are among your wishes, you most likely would rate the Boys' Alliance Projects as "tops." Alliance had a banner year under President Chuck Orwig and Sponsor Merle Lange. Operating with an enlarged Advisory Board plus the regular cabinet, the boys' group got going with its Stardust Ball, using the "Eternal Evening" Roman theme. It was a crashing success (almost literally, as one of the mock pillars of the Roman Senate tottered throughout the night).

The Class of '63's dynasty fell, as it lost the Alliance Attendance Trophy to the Class of '65 by a huge margin. The juniors had won it twice previously, and could have retired it permanently with a win this year. Few Bobcats were guilty of carrying moldy I.D. cards, after the Advisory Board operated the plastic laminating machine several lunch periods. Students were told that important papers, "such as Mickey Mouse Club Card, etc.," could be sealed for the same low price.

The Alliance continued to build its treasury, selling Bobcat derbies during football and basketball season to loyal Central rooters. Much of the bulging treasury was turned over to the Alliance scholarship fund, cut of which two college scholarships are to be granted.

PLANNERS are Alliance Officers Gary Eglinton, President Chuck Orwig, and Richard Ash, who kept the boys' group alert and always on the job.

PROJECTS COMMITTEE — (Seated): Tessitore, Hess, Evans, Weiss. Standing: Dick, Zivney, and Kong.

Leave It To The Committee!

Projects Committee produced more concrete results than three previous years of efforts. With Chairman Ken Weiss supervising, the committee turned long hours into the school's first carnival, a long dreamed-of goal. The committee added a touch of Hollywood during the year, showing six first-run color movies to raise funds for student government. The Projects group saw few idle moments in 1962.

What's going on around campus? It's this group's job to let you know—quickly. The Publicity Committee, composed of 15 members, had the Herculean task of keeping all students informed of the activities of nearly every campus group. Under Chairman Paul Schatt the committee kept telephones ringing and posters flying. Committee on April Fool's Day faked the Bulletin with hilarious results.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE — (Seated): Krohn, Peden, Zimel, Chairman Schatt, Friedman, Gaisford, Abernathy. STANDING: Deitch, Dahl, Mahoney, Katie Stevens, Gregory, Tanner, Canterbury, Tommy Hoover, and Seaman.

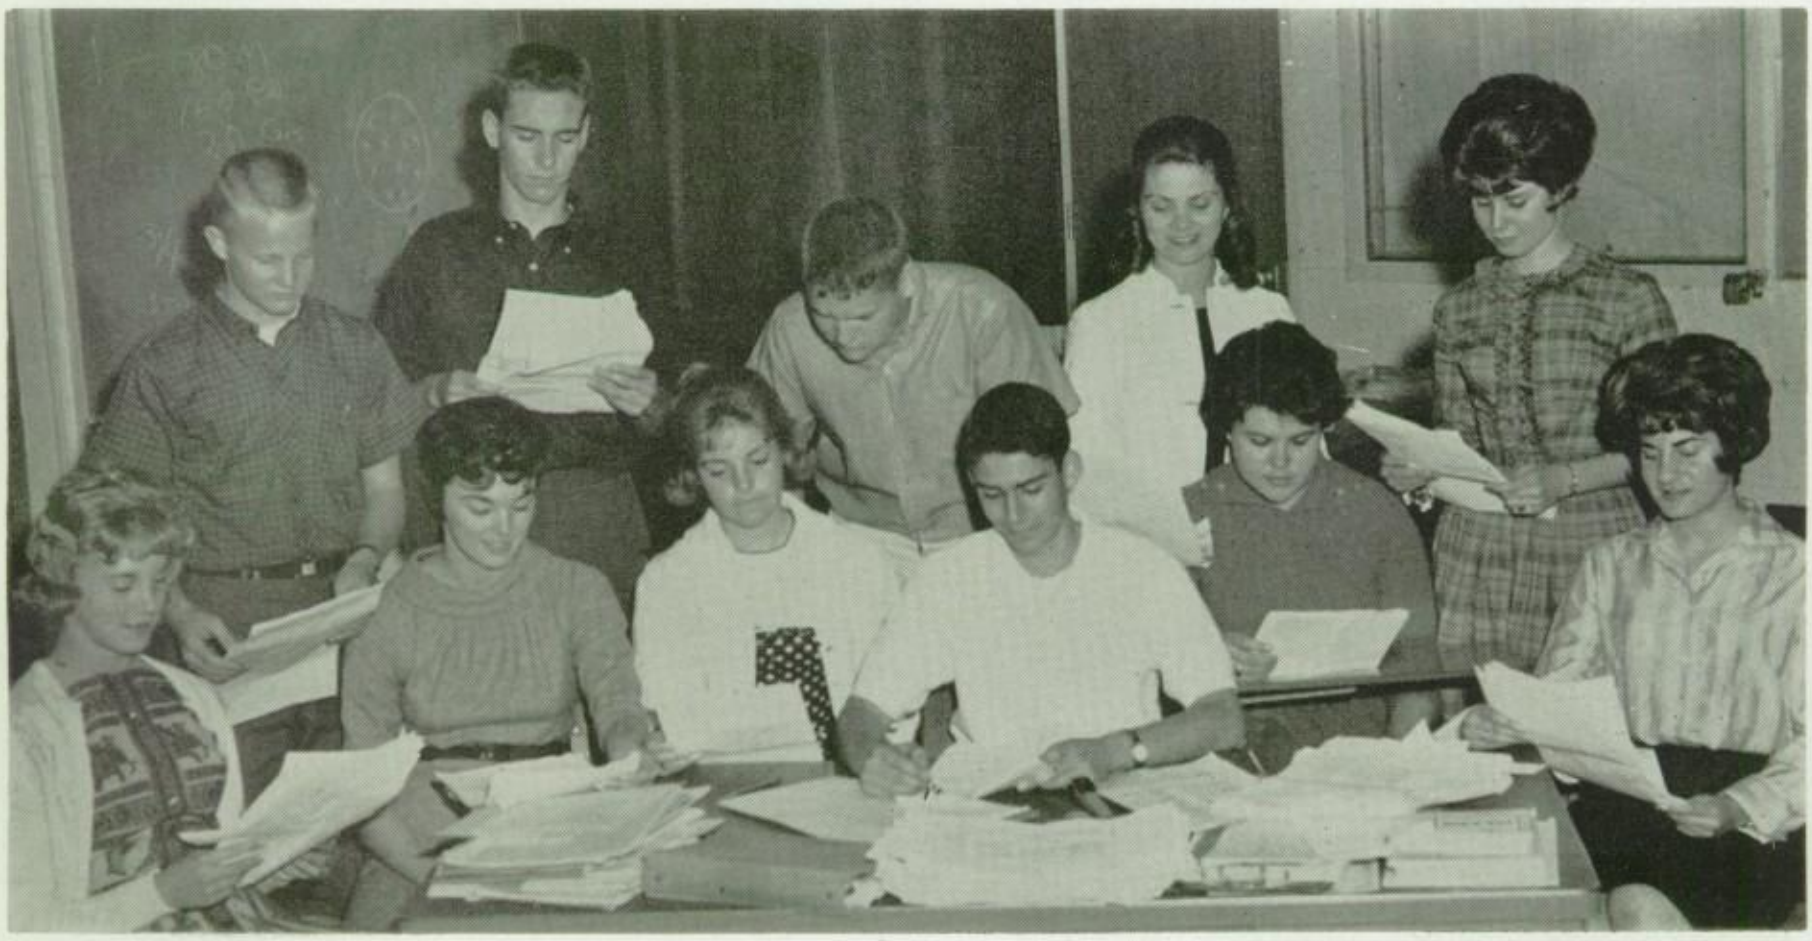
SCRAPBOOK Committee — From left are: Freidman, Irwin, Evans, Dick, Barkson. Scrapbook Committee is in charge of keeping a record of all Central's activities.

They Worked At Their Job!

New ideas brought renewed life to the Elections Committee this year, as Chairman John Jacobson took steps to insure the safety of each student's vote. For the first time, actual ballot results of each election were made public, in the name of real democracy. Students now felt more confident of getting a fair deal.

New vote-count procedures reduced tabulating time by six hours, and increased accuracy. A revised polling system created enough voting booths so students could complete checking-in and voting in little more than a minute. Strict rules for counting were maintained, under the quip, "An aye for an aye!"

ELECTION COMMITTEE—(Seated): Diane Crayton, Jody Ragland, Leslie Kipnis, Chairman John Jacobson, Mary Gilbert, Gay Buros. STANDING: Jim Hunter, Ian Bruce, Bill Hess, Cheryl Bundy, Judy Hunter. Missing are Chris Hall, Howard Neilson. Election Committee proved to be one of the busiest groups — and most important.



STUDENT SAFETY COUNCIL—Standing: Davey, Heller, Blair, Waters, Buehler, Sankey, Bonnet, Dent, Walters, Mikals, Gilbert, Ressel, Berkson, Kartus, Baker, Harris, Rhodes. SITTING: Mr. Pistor, sponsor; Butler, Goettl, Hall, Evans, Skelton, Klein, Lassen, Grossberg, Linton, Hill, Hunter, Kossick. BICYCLISTS demonstrate safe driving as a club promotion. They DO look happy—and capable! RIGHT: "Better buy our flares, Mr. Pistor!" That's part of the sales pitch tried by Baker and Kartus on their club sponsor, who answers the door with Junior.

Playing It Safe At Central . . .

Maintaining last year's outstanding safety record, Central's Safety Council, under the leadership of Phil Tower and Chuck Sankey, undertook many projects during the year to alert students and public to the importance of safety. They concentrated on bike and auto work and devoted two Saturdays to bicycle rodeos for elementary students at Simis and Madison Meadows Schools. Cooperating with the City Safety Council, members sold flares.

Revenue from the sale will help pay for a delegate's trip to the National Convention in Denver, Colorado this summer. Chick Klein, Barb Butler, John Hunter, Beverly Buehler, and Karen Blair represented Central High at the State Convention at ASU on Saturday, April 7. Three of Central High's delegates were elected officers of the Teen-Age Traffic Safety Association: John Hunter, president; Beverly Buehler, secretary; and Karen Blair, treasurer.

Bobcats Attract Parent Backing

IT'S NEW! Business Instructor Caceletto explains workings of revolutionary IBM typewriter . . . whose type bars are replaced by a bouncing ball. Interested observer is Open House visitor Mrs. Hassenger.

DADS' CLUB members raised $400 on their new football program, produced by Echoes Staffer Mark Soubie. On Nov. 29 the Dads sponsored their Annual Football Banquet with U of A Coach Jim LaRue as guest speaker. Spring-O-Rama held April 3, another Dads' Club venture, climaxed an excellent, exciting year with student entertainment equal to the best. Over 250 members made up the Dads' Club roster of enthusiastic Bobcat boosters.

SPEAKERS at Annual Dads' Club Banquet included Coach Bourgeois and Dads' President Whittaker. RIGHT: Head table at dinner held many VIPS and their attractive wives. Central High's gridders were royally entertained and fed.

PARENT-TEACHER BOARD: (Front Row) Mrs. Risley, Mr. Felton, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Burros, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bendalin, first vice president; Mrs. Cox, president; Mrs. Cook, recording secretary; Mr. Ball, Mrs. Lodge. STANDING: Mrs. Johns, Mr. Waters, principal for 1962-63; Mr. Pitts, Mrs. Dial, Mr. Kendall, Mrs. Jefferies, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Erickson. LOWER LEFT: Getting ready for their vaccination shots, with help of PTA worker Mrs. Dalton are Mike Welcome and John Price. RIGHT: Big doin's for Open House! Dorothy Krueger demonstrates her skill on the accordion which she'll use to entertain Central visitors at Annual Open House. Interested are Mr. Lange, Kathy Anderson, who will help serve at the dinner, and Chairman Buehler of PTA.

Teamwork Via Communication

Having worked hard, and successfully, the PTA achieved its goal of "Teamwork Through Communication for Education of Students" in many ways.

First came the Open House and Dinner to acquaint parents with teachers. This led to many informative meetings, each with a special program having a place in the year's theme. Topics such as "After High School . . . What?" and "Culture of Other Lands" were used to help all to a better understanding.

PTA also held a series of discussion groups for parents on family living. Started in October, these groups began with students, as panel members. Then parents came to discuss problems that children have in education and other related subjects.

All of this was designed to bring the parents, teachers, and students together for a better relationship, all working with each other. Only complete co-operation between school and community can assure school's progress.

WORK can become play when students team up with teachers to do research or probe for the secrets of success.

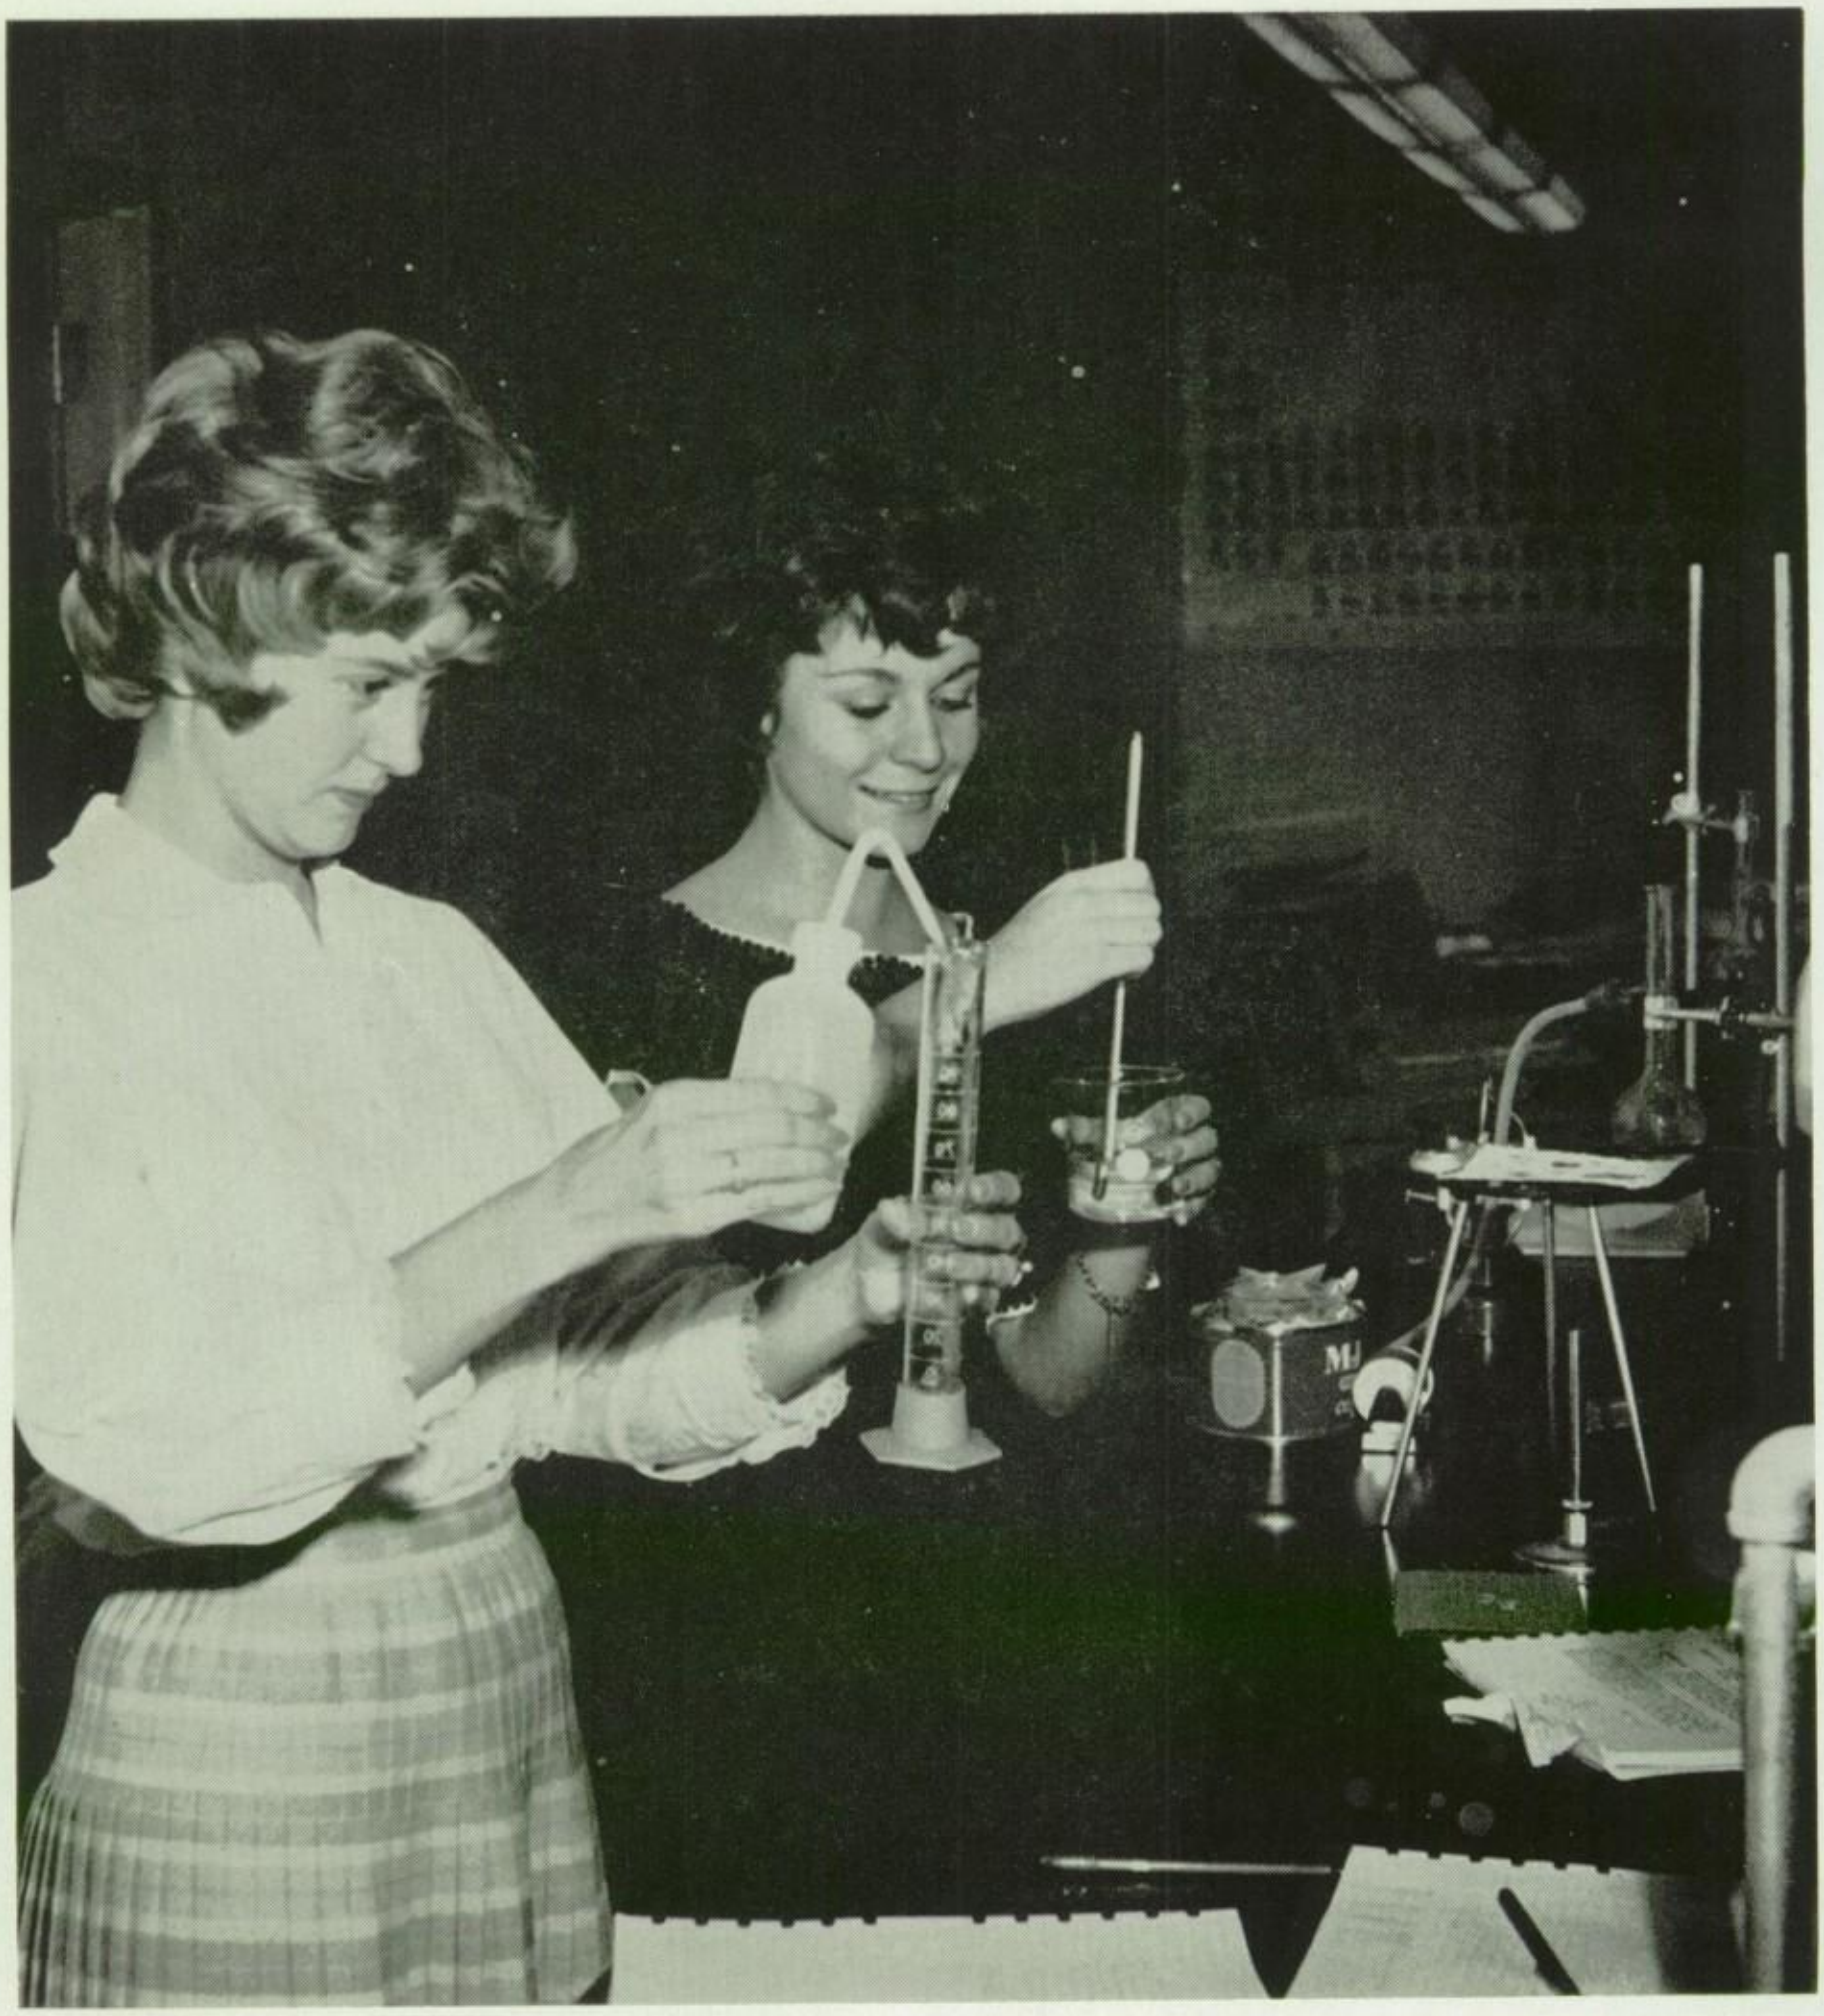
PUSH



CHEMISTRY LAB proves fascinating to the feminine gender, too! Here Ginger Norton and Bette Williams try mixing a little of this and a little of that, hopeful that the resultant concoction won't send them skyward. Actually they are attempting to create an efficient calorimeter. And will they succeed? Why, of course!

Woman's Place In Kitchen?

NOT TOO LONG AGO men sternly said, "Woman's place is in the home; she is supposed to make a house comfortable, livable, a desirable retreat for the hard-working husband who must make the living. . . ." Maybe so, but don't forget Madame Curie and her radium discovery! And how about other famous women scientists, doctors, lawyers, research specialists? Modern Age welcomes women with brains and ambition who may themselves discover great secrets useful to civilization's progress! Perhaps more men should cook!

Much Ado About Touchy Topics

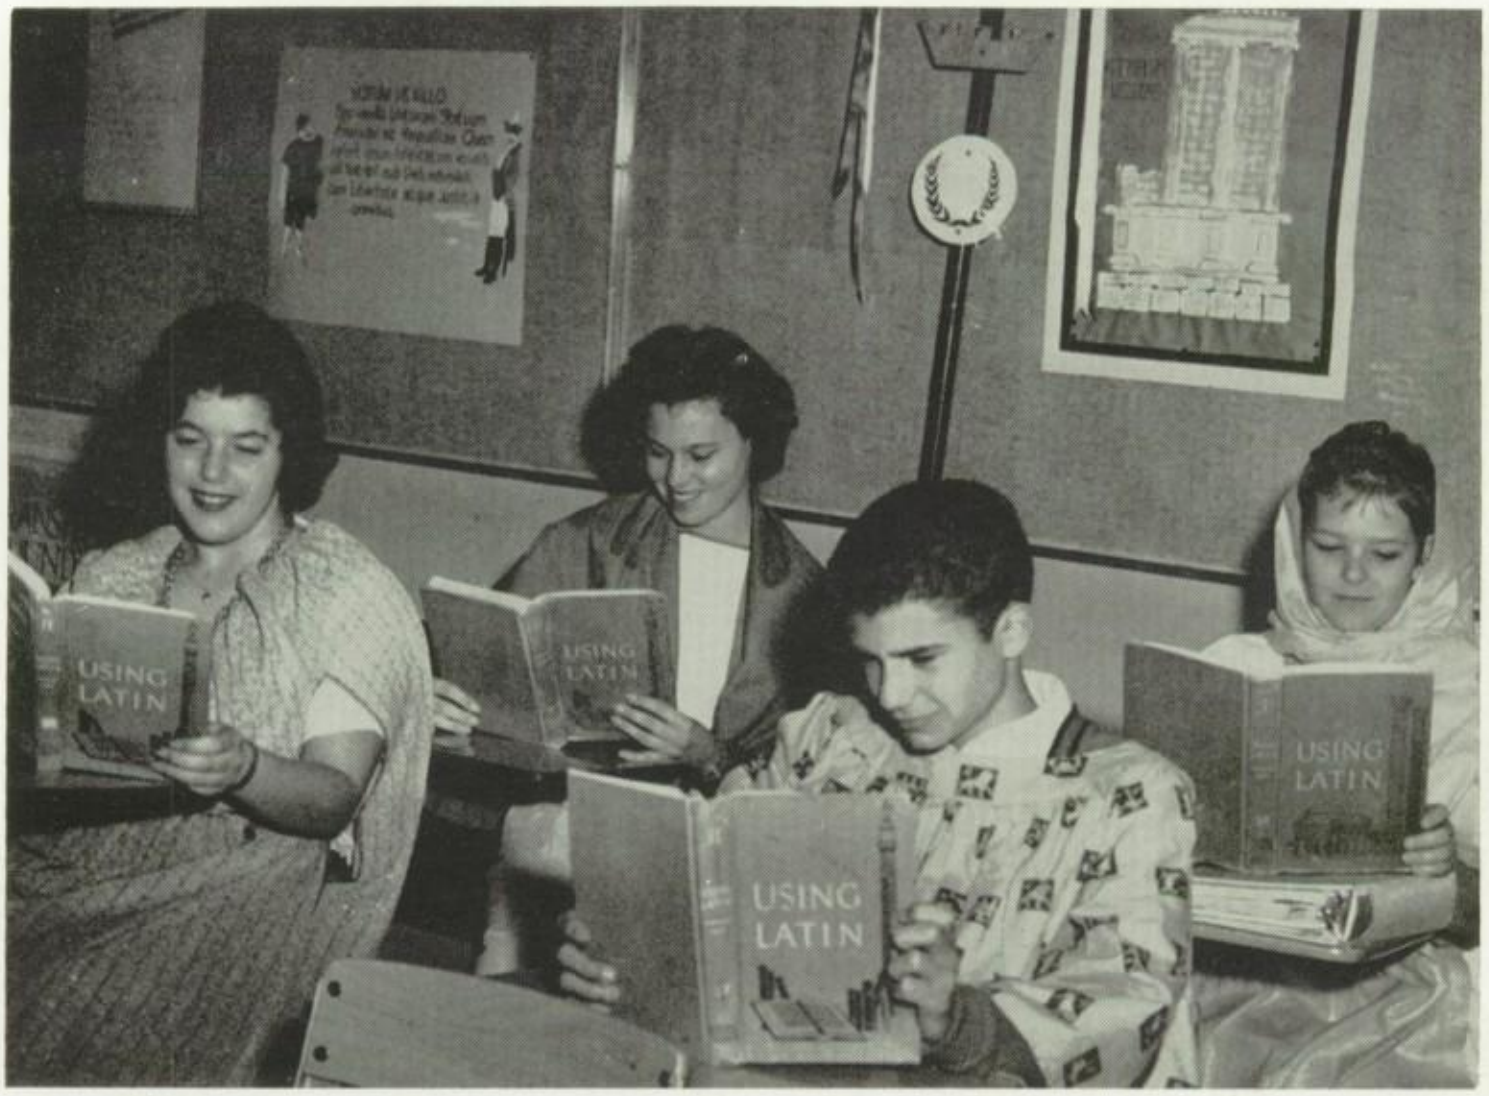
PANELISTS enjoyed exciting year in Speech Department as well as the "extras" which included appearances on TV and radio. Speech students dealt with many controversial topics relating to teenagers and school.

Poster Pasters

INCREASING emphasis on classroom posters as motivators finds many English teachers perfecting the difficult art. Here, intent on final touches are Instructors Lu Boyle and DeWitt.

It Means More If You See It!

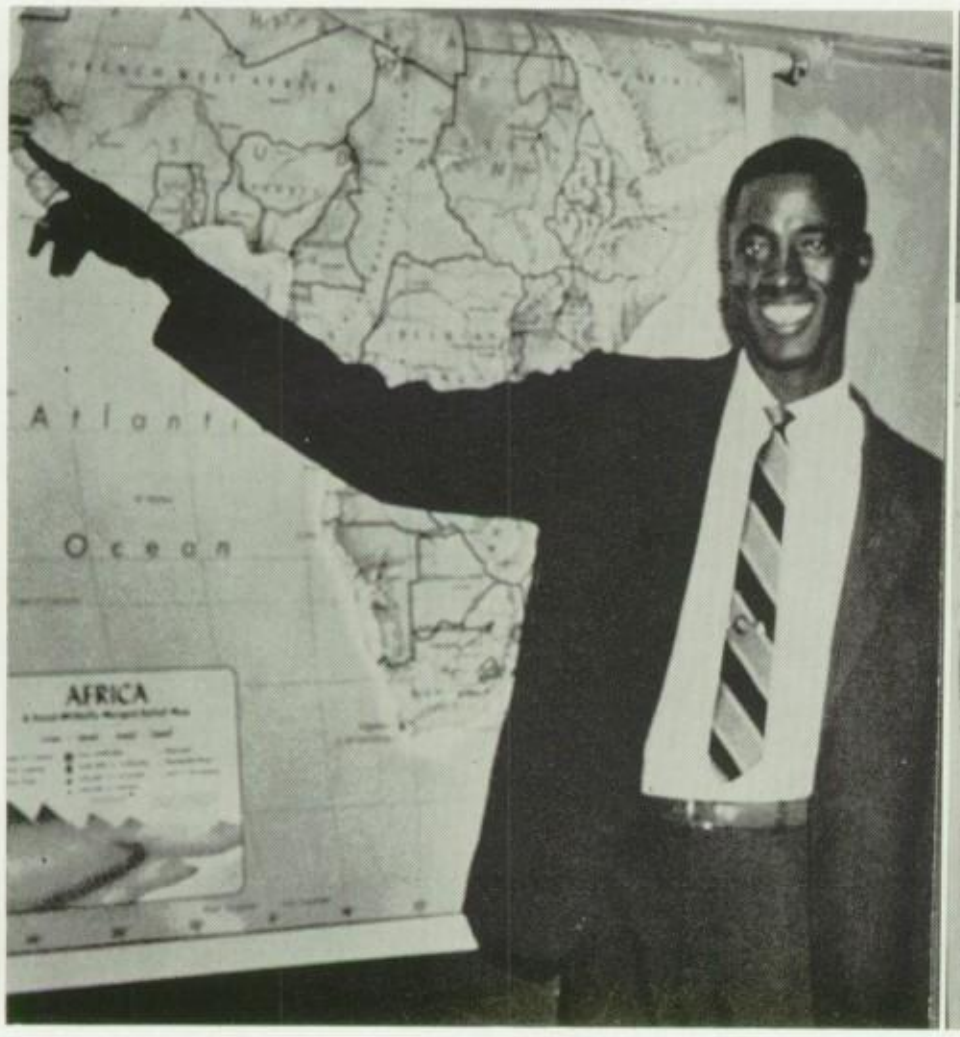
SILAS MARNER will long live in the memories of Mrs. Boyle's sophomores as a result of such attractive displays as this one relating to the English classic. Almost makes the rest of us want to re-read the wonderful old story!



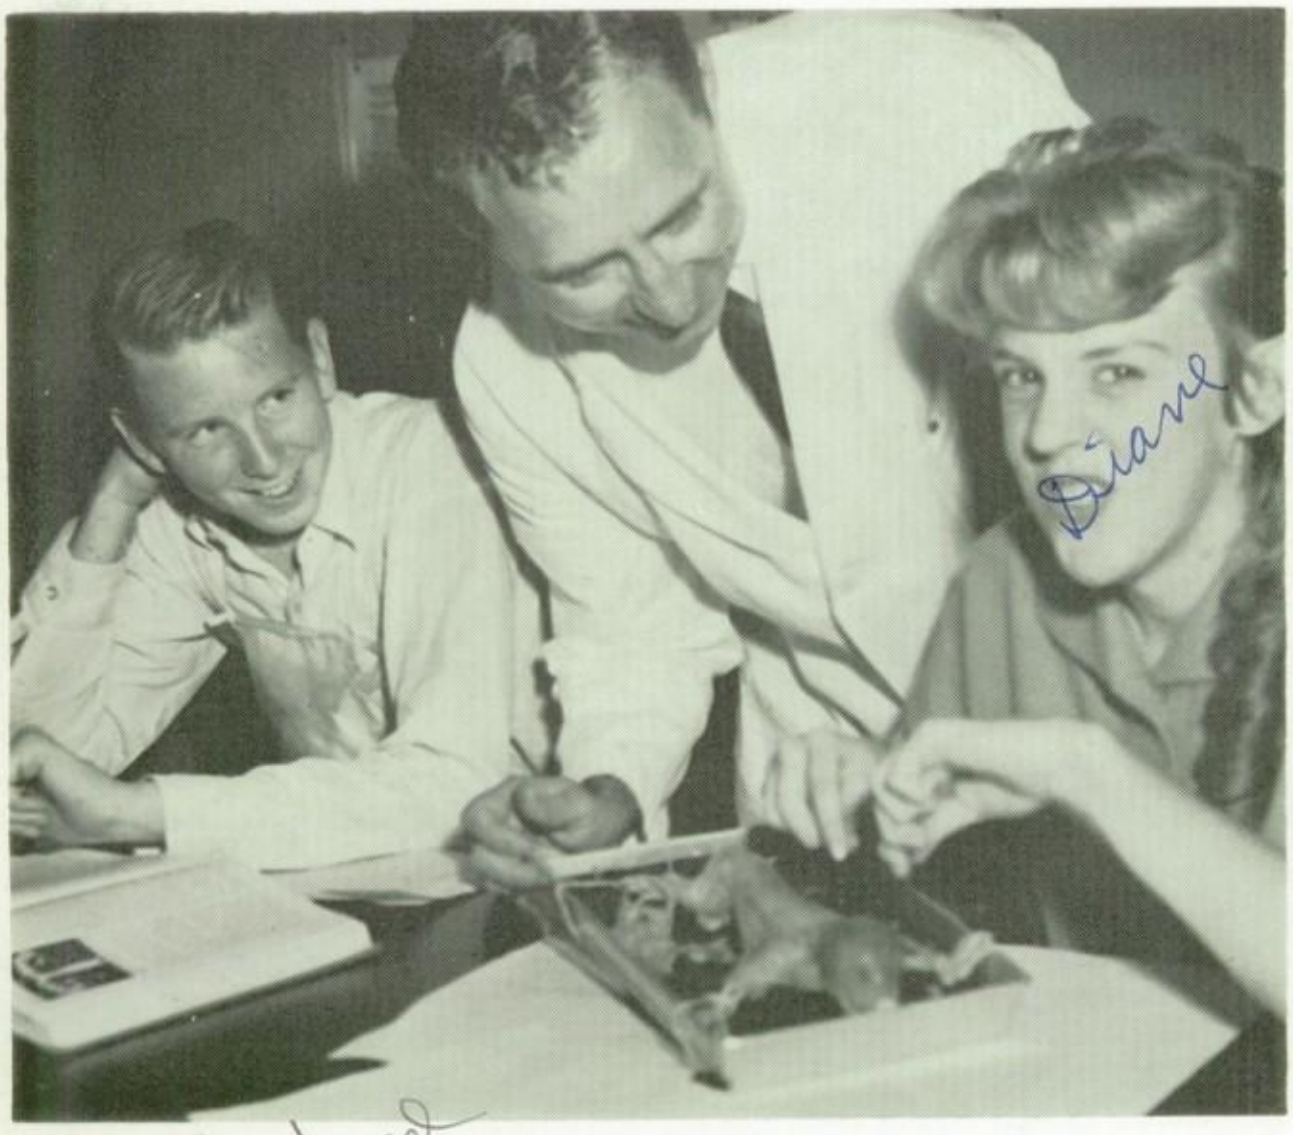
LATIN STUDENTS dress in authentic Roman garb for a skit then try their hand at reading Latin while in the mood! Shown are Meg Grossberg, Sharan Faulkner, Burton Elias, Berky Etter. Mrs. Wiebe is teacher. In background are Latin symbols and mosaic art of Classic Period. These were all prepared by students.

Get Into The Spirit Of Things!

FROM 'WAY DOWN THERE! M. Lausani Kone, attache of ministry of national defense and security, Republic of Guinee, Afrique, visited the advanced French Class. He spoke only French and his informal talk with question-answer session proved fascinating. RIGHT: Don Quixote fought windmills, but Senor Tom Neiman, he fights the bool . . . just like the hero in the Nogales Bullfights poster! But there's not quite the hazard!



Some Call It Class Work!



OOOHHH! It moved! Dian Seaman isn't too sure that biology is her most divine subject, following this introduction to dissection project. Amused are Instructor Mr. Konzal and science pupil Robert Ward.

IT'S A BIG WORLD, Pam Musgrave proves to students in Mr. Kemp's World History class. Her report was one of many that these history classmembers gave during the semester. They teach each other . . . and learn!

Teachers Can Relax, Too!

Getting Down To Business

AND SEW to work! Student dressmakers Clark and Cristner are only two of hundreds who learn value of saving by doing.

Designed to help students now and later, homemaking is a popular course. Girls learn food management, sewing, child guidance, and a variety of other things in home ec classes, while boys and girls learn how to get along with each other and the world around them in human relations classes. All of this makes for a better understanding of how (and why) we live — in an increasingly difficult world.

Business training is highly thought of at Central High, with every class filled to capacity. Not only can one use the training in many personal ways, but also students may prepare for a career in the business world. Part of the program is the on-job training offered those who really want to make business a "business." Typing, shorthand, salesmanship, law, and bookkeeping are available.

Winners In Art

AWARDS GALORE! Heading the long list of Central High winners of Scholastic Arts contest are Carolyn Milling, Ann Ward, Treva Jackson, and Sue Gregory. They are wearing First Place ribbons but among them totalled 9 gold keys. Here they are evaluating two water color paintings done by members of Miss Julia McCann's art class.

Health is wealth, in any man's language. Central students were made aware this year of the necessity for check-ups as well as prevention against disease. Under supervision of Mrs. Rhodes at the Health Center, 839 received hearing tests, 1341 eye tests, and 388 students and teachers were vaccinated against smallpox, and 476, tetanus. A majority participated in the Sabin Sunday antipolio drive as well. Type I,15,356; Type II, 14-287—that was the count at Central in the community campaign. It was an active, and healthy 1961 - 62 here!

BIG LAUGH: Hurlbut gets a charge out of Glenda Bailey's wince as the long, cold needle penetrates her tender hide in the school-wide antitetanus drive. RIGHT: Jim Batt, Class of '61 reports for his sugar-cube polio preventive in the Central High Gym. In center is Nurse Rhodes, one of many who devoted their Sundays to the drive.

Up Not A Moment Too Soon!

More and more buildings to take care of! That's what took place this year when the builders moved on campus and the dirt started to fly. Added to Central's capacity were many large buildings, modern, refrigerated, and convenient. It was high time, too. New students had lifted our enrollment to almost double the intended population at Central

Teachers were happy to see second semester roll around, for that meant a departure from sharing. To that moment, no teacher on campus had been able to claim a classroom as his exclusively. Two and sometimes three teachers were forced to share the same class space with attendant difficiulties threatening the efficiency of learning. Then came the move.

They Maintain!

Some of the skilled and hard-working people who keep Central High in top shape are (top) Ernest Valenzuela, Howard Padgett, John Maroney, James Weatherford, Ralph Burks, John Helms, shown checking latest news in The ECHOES. Right Center: Here they come, got the floor cleaned just in time! Acting out the skit are Keith Melheim, Walter Rix, and Carmen Chavez. LEFT: Head Man Gene Sims in the engine room with Earl Osborn and Charles Twigger. Lower Left: Installing tables in the new Chem Lab are Charles Smith, John Allmendinger, Bud Cloyd. RIGHT: Taking it easy in the lazy afternoon sun are Pete Christensen, Roy Kent, and Dennis Schroeder.

AT YOUR SERVICE! Cafeteria workers maintain that cheery mien partly because they love us all and partly because they know the food they serve is the best. In back row are Gertrude Wahlman, Betty Moore, Bernice Stackwell, Florence Wright, Gloria Moore, Olive Hammer. FRONT: Alice Blair, Lucille Carlson, Annie Poetzl, Bessie Peterson, Margaret Sullivan, and Ester Curran. MERRY CHRISTMAS! Part of the staff gathers around the Yuletide goodies for the annual Christmas party. BACK: June Britt, Ruth Robinson, Vern Matherly, Don Grundy, Blanche Kopfeky, Margaret Wurtz. FRONT: Edna Woodard, Annie Bishop. RIGHT: Just for YOU! Head Chef Joel Von Blomberg offers us a cup of wonderfully delicious, cool eggnog and a hearty Merry Christmas greeting.

We Like What They Prepare!

How many potatoes to make a ton . . . or fill up a mob of 2000 hungry Bobcats 'n Kittens? When we go to the cafeteria at lunch time we think only of our appetites and how to fill the inner man, not how much time and planning it took to get the food there, hot, good, and on time! Only by eating downtown now and then can we appreciate CeHS food.

Part of our school learning should take in the economics of feeding everybody with excellent food while keeping the prices down lower, yes, lower, than we can manage to place the same food on our home table. It takes careful planning, skilled dietitions, clever cooks, and organized know-how. Our thanks to all who feed us so well, often, and cheaply!

Engine Trouble?

Well, yes. But not for long. Engineers Twigger, Osborn, and Sims find the cause and take quick steps to correct it. Heating, lighting, and cooling the huge CeHS plant is a 24-hour job that requires skill, know-how, and patience.

WE MAKE a big thing of our elections, but when they're all over, we give loyal support to the winners.

OUR HAPPY SENIORS . . .

LIKE THIS? Sam Mardian, salutatorian, gets help from Valedictorians Roberta Erickson and Tom Liston regarding graduation garb technique. Uh, now which side does the tassel go on before one gets the diploma. . . . . ?

CAMERA revolved on gears so that panorama was possible.

Let's Meet Again . . . In 1982!

HOLD IT! As camera moved from one end of group to other, photographer on ladder urged cooperation. Only one uninhibited, and nervous, senior was blurred. (Think maybe you can find him?)

For Leadership And Scholarship

With the increased emphasis on academic subjects and basic education, the effect of groups such as the National Honor Society has grown considerably. With prospective members competing on a national scale for top grades, the standards of excellence have been raised, with intelligence emerging as a goal in its own right

This year, the Central chapter vowed to increase activities, to help the school and community. A highlight was a panel discussion with the counseling staff on college entrance.

They Get Along . . . !

SENIOR MOSTS included Patty Garner, left, whose role as Pom Pon captain added zip to Life at Central. She is Most Congenial. RIGHT: Can you guess? Linda Arnote and Gary Eglinton were declared "most compatible couple." Gary was also named most likely to succeed; Linda, most respected. That's a pretty fair send-off for this pair . . . from the Class of '62!

In 1962 They Were The Most!

By democratic vote, the Class of '62 came up with a list of The Mosts that seemed to please many, especially those who were chosen! Categories included compatible, athletic, successful, handsome, respected, humorous, congenial, and personable.

Mr. Bereit was named Favorite Teacher; Moon River, favorite record; swimming, favorite sport. (What happened to bubble gum chewing, Tiddly-Winks, Yo-Yos and The Twist?

SO FUNNY! Most humorous Bobcats in Class of '62 are Butch Dellinger and Carol Chandler. They also look compatible, athletic, successful, respected and very personable . . . !

Supersalesmen Show How Money's Made!

Through three active years of selling almost everything imaginable, the Class of '63 supersalesmen have become Central's most affluent society. That's money, folks! The juniors raised $2000 for what they consider most worthy causes, including the Senior-Junior Prom.

In 1961-62 the industrious group conducted four sales projects: magazines, See's chocolates, Christmas trees, and class dues cards. Prom plans include the ASU Memorial Ballroom May 19 . . . dreamy music, and a romantic Southern theme.

JUNIOR CLASS COUNCIL (front) Tessitore, McDonald, Gold, Gentry, Hart, Grodzinsky, Weiss. MIDDLE: Satz, Sankey, Nathanson, Gelt, Zivney, Blanchard, Mrs. McCubbin, Adviser, Guirey, Hershfield. TOP: Walmsey, Barlow, Dent, Buelher, Hall, Wright, Dale, Blair, York. Group met frequently to plan their sales campaigns.

Working For A Better CeHS

Class of '64 contributed to the betterment of Central High through scholastics, and active participation in school government. The class council spent most of 1961-62 earning money for next year's Junior-Senior Prom. That's what everybody could call devotion!

Paper drives, carnival booths, a carwash, a Valentine's Dance, class dues, and a hard-working council helped fill the treasury. Carmel apple and fortune cookie sales also will make prom a success. This year's work culminated with the annual class council swimming party.

SOPHOMORE CLASS COUNCIL: (Seated) Sack, Davey, Klein, Lewis, Ryan, Seefried. CENTER: Grosberg, Zivney, Hall, Mr. Hatch, Mrs. Leftwich, Luckie, Fong, Rasmussen. BACK: Wright, Thomas, Forster, Frantz, Harvey, Hess, Lynn, Hunter, Ruksas, and (center) Eberhardt. Action, not just words marked this group's 1961-62 calendar.

Hopeful Freshmen

LOOKING ahead to even more high school fun and growth are Freshman Officers Andria (Anderia) Stapley, treasurer; Bob Kendig, president; Dixie Tisdale, secty., and Bev Burns, veep.

Upwards and onward . . . that's the only worthwhile direction, Central's newest newcomers demonstrated soon after they got their bearings on the strange, bustling campus that was to be their home away from home. Mighty sophomores were little help, offering directions and instructions meant only to confuse. But the Class of '65 soon learned their way.

By Thanksgiving recess they were seasoned old timers on campus. Scholastically the class did well. But in their support of student activities such as football games and rallies and the school paper, they led the school. They were to win the attendance trophy for basketball support later. Class Council won hearty support as well for its willingness to work.

They're Alive—This Class of '65

Autographs

Dear Mr. Brown:

About those student riots 2 years ago - oops wrong letter. Oh well! Keep up the good work and lots of ruck!

Mike Cahill

PRETTY & SHARP! Photographer Bailey gave underclassmen every expert attention for yearbook photos and attractive color prints for their personal use.

LIFE gets a new lease when Traditions Committee Chairman Webb grabs the mike! Here is start of Bubble Gum Contest on Rodeo Day.

Student Life

HEY! HEY! And a-w-a-y! Who needs a rocket booster to go into orbit when you can take off like Lee Gallo, one of six pep-full cheerleaders who stirred up Bobcat fans with zest.

CHEER-FULL EARFUL! Central's yell leaders brought a pleasurable lift to every Bobcat game with their peppy cheers, jumps, and yips designed to bolster school spirit.

FROM TOP: Peggy Heflin, Head Cheerleader Marilyn Webb, Billie Phillipi, Lee Gallo, Carol Tessitore, and Barbara Blaine. Bobcat fans will long remember them!

They Boosted Sagging Morale

THEY KEEP our spirit alive! They jump, they scream, and they smile! The whole attitude of our cheer gals gave our team the fight they needed to win, throughout the year.

Miss Cook, their sponsor, yelled and criticized until they reached the peak of perfection. But even before the year was over, she knew that our eight Central cheerleaders had attained the high goal she had established.

Marilyn Webb, captain, and Barbara Blaine, co-captain, worked the hardest of all. It was their responsibility to make sure all the cheers were known by all the girls and were polished to a shine. It was difficult work for all the girls, but they didn't even try to kid anyone. They loved it, and their enthusiasm never fell.

All For Laughs

OOPS! When girls pretend they're big, brawney boy athletes, even in fun, as this group did in an assembly-rally, everybody gets laughs, including the active feminine participants.

Pom Pons With Bounce 'n Beauty

Pom Pons' synchronized dancing makes everyone admire their talent and co-ordination. Their variety of original, bouncy steps makes our Pom Pon girls outstanding. Their smiles never faltered for a moment, nor did their feet. Miss Colleen Cook directed the peppy line.

Patty Garner, captain, and Linda Vaupell, co-captain, helped the other six girls on the line with difficult and much needed techniques. It took constant practice after school, all year long to develop their self-assurance. They DANCED spirit and victory into students.

PRETTY GOOD, EH? And pretty, too, agreed those who attended State Fair the day Central's band and marchers presented their ideas on rhythm and harmony. Here the Pom Pon Girls keep time to the Concert Band's music.

Hatbox Cuties! Pom Pon Girls form interesting line on stairway using novel gimmick. Up the stairs clockwise are Patty Garner, Linda Arnote, Elaine Faris, Sue Samuelson, Linda Vaupell, Pam Hubert, Susie Steinman, and Ellen Grodzinsky. Hi, gals!

Royal Court

Boys Create Old Rome Theme

ETERNAL EVENING formal found solid support from Central's social set, which includes everybody who likes to dance. The music was good, the refreshments adequate, and the decorations delightfully Romanesque.

MARILYN WEBB
Boys' Alliance Queen

POUR ME ONE, puleeze! Punch was good, but ladies were willing to wait while the gents went for the cooling cups. RIGHT: King Dain Inman and his princess, Dinah Bentson, enjoy the spotlight. BELOW: Happy crowd mingles as melodious music fills the dance hall, and their romantic thoughts just seem to softly drift along.

We Coulda' Danced All Night . . .

NIGHT OF ENCHANTMENT! Girls' League publicity was effective, and we went to the April 14 formal in droves. Nor were we disappointed. Decorations were softly magical, the music was devine, and the crowd . . . well, all of us were there for a wonderful time. All of us enjoyed just that. Crowning of Central High's king, Mr. Centerrific, highlighted the event, but the total effect made it a night long to remember.

Enchanted Evening . . . There's something about a formal dance that places us on our best behaviour . . . and we like the feeling! Beautiful girls, gorgeous dresses, soft music and dreamy decorations combine to stir up the high school days' magic we'll always remember.

Wild & Wooly

SHAVE, MISTER? Nope, says Weiss, d'ruther keep ma' whiskers! That's Marti Blumberg with him. RIGHT: Lovely Bobbi Price swings partner Mike Foley in Ginger Reel. BELOW: Wal, now, wouldn't that there be Ol' Elmer Felton and his dance hall thrush, Gladys Wilke, just outside his Bird Cage? RIGHT: He went thata way men! Cut him off at the bend! Sheriff Wallace and deppities are on the job, if YOU'LL do the runnin' after the bank robber!

Yippee Hi! Yo!

MAVERICK DAY at Central is one happy round of whooping it up, Western Style. While Kampus Kops Ripper Pitts and Wild Bill Ball (upper left) keep an eye on the boys (and them cute fillies, too) the gang stomps out rhythm at the Rodeo Dance. CENTER: Bubble Gummers Galore! Rosenzweig and Kelman compete against Heflin and Hoover for honors. Ya said a mouthful, pardner! BELOW: The Conga line, Western Style at the Rodeo shindig.

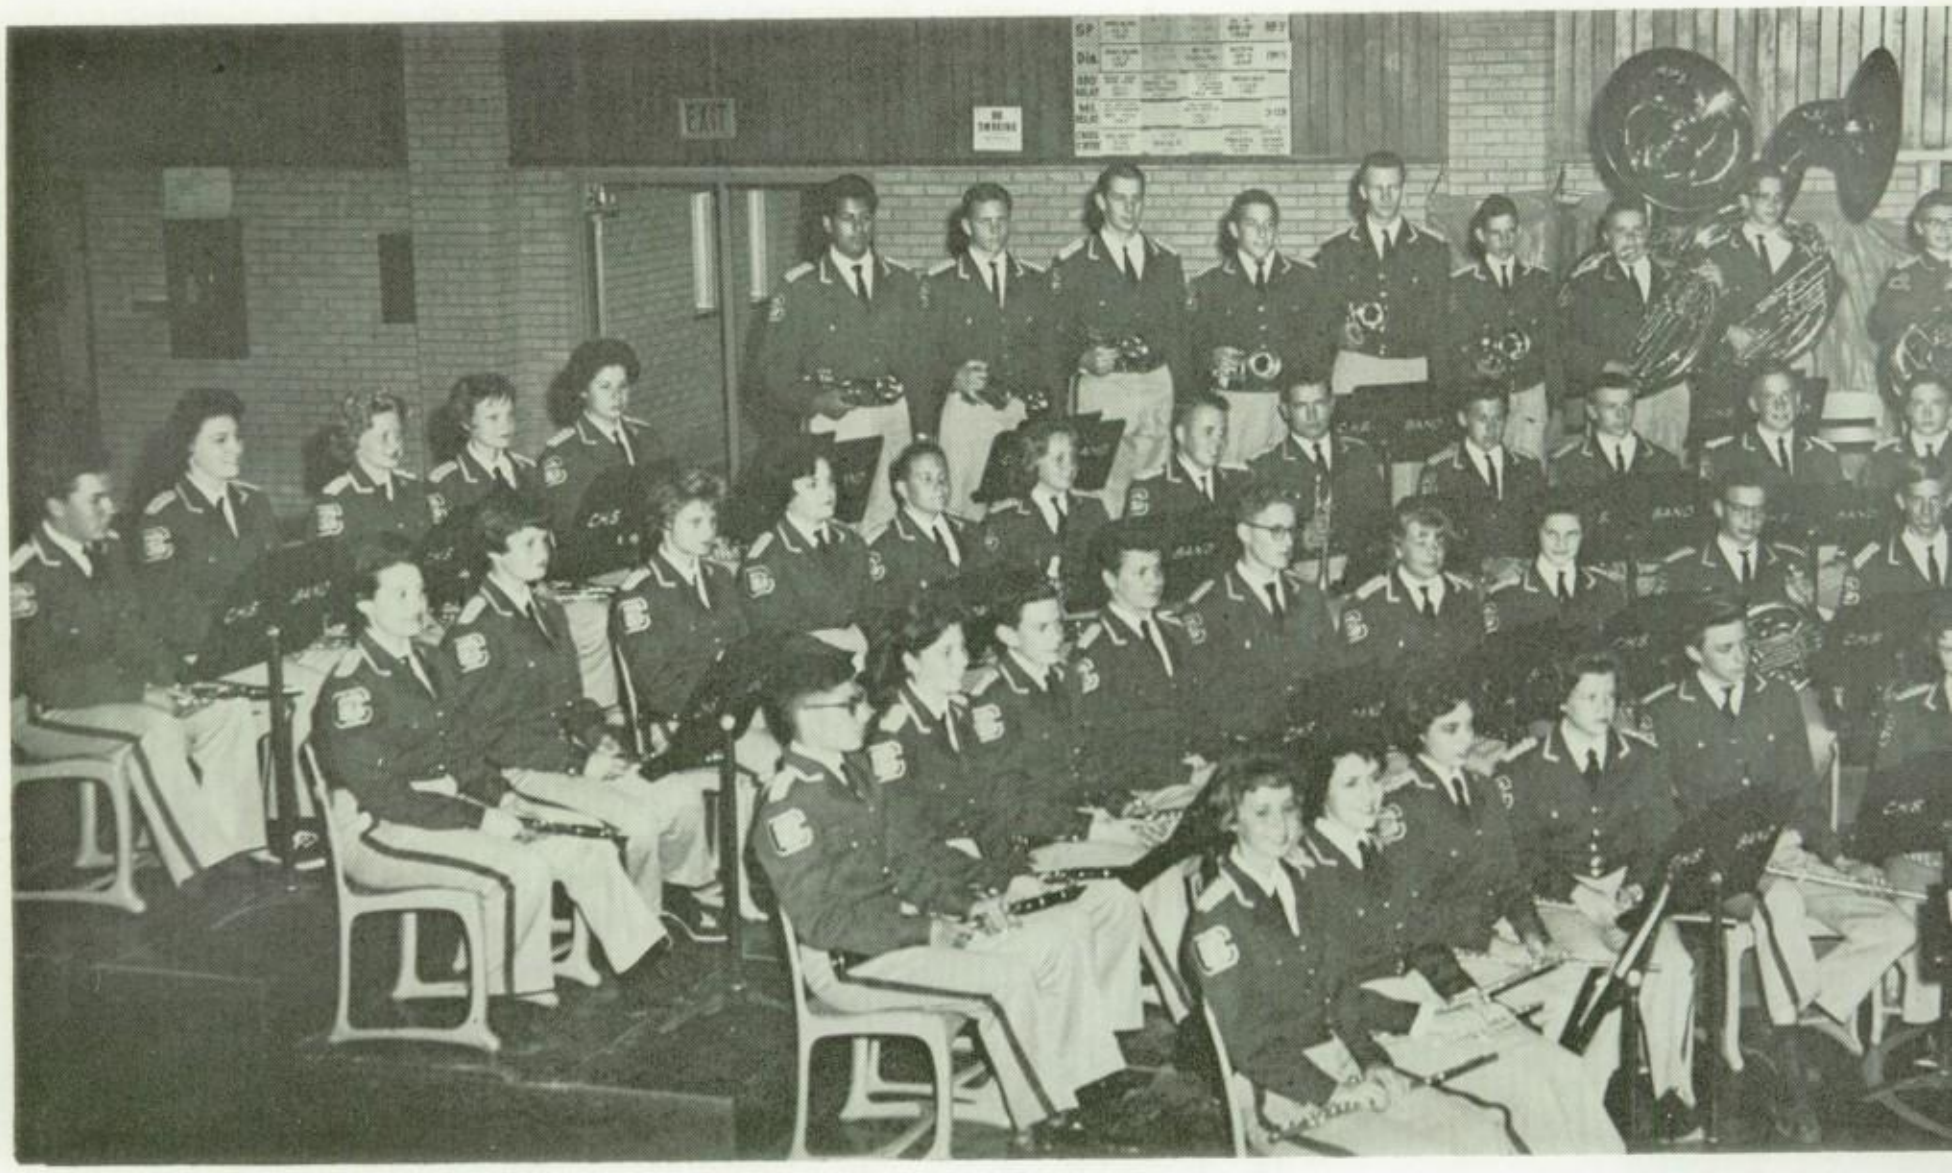
FROM WAY Down South! Bob Blanchard's Dixieland Band (from left): Steve Liston, Blanchard, John Bagwell, Bill Cunningham, Ronnie Jones. Noon "concert" was to arouse interest and support for our basketball team in the State Tournament at ASU in Tempe. Peppy and loyal, the Central High Dixielanders won many fans.

Dixieland Band Really Swings

ARE YOU FROM the South? Well, make yourself at home. We have just what you're looking for—a super-swingin' Dixieland Band. Supervised by Mr. Bagwell, this popular group was "in it" all over campus and across the Valley. In this, their first year, they have had over 12 official engagements. First major appearance was at the Christmas Program, followed by "concerts" at Open House, Goldwaters' Style Show, Sage Brush Swing, Disneyland, Washington School Square Dance Festival, and a Parent-Teacher meeting. Here's something really new that's already in orbit!

HIGH STEPPERS in musical circles are Drum Major Fred Dobelbower, right, and Majorettes Ginger Rogers, Kandie Fuller, Nancy Morgan, Betty McCall, and Lorna Morgenson. BELOW: Director Zorn takes his Concert Band to the State Fair where they made big hit with their clever arrangements and efficient rendition of several pieces.

Steppin' To Snappy Martial Airs



BOBCAT BAND PERSONNEL — OBOES — Joan Elardo, Joan Preston. E♭ FLUTE — Bob Grassi. C FLUTES — Joanna Driskell, Susan Forbes, Nadine Deupree, Ann Ward, Doug Knight, Roberta Erickson, Marilyn Campbell, Roberta Elliott, Betty McCollum, Carl Goodrich, Pam Waters, Sherry Swope. CLARINETS — Dave Margolin, John Seabrooks, Nancy Beller, Jim Rhoads, Randy Brockway, Shirley Levendusky, Clayton Helms, Ellie Finn, Ann Bassett, Paula North, Marian Graepler, Bill Buros, Donna Boone, Carrie Jefferies, Dorothy Krueger, Tom Carrick, Sally Gray, Ricky Urman, Candy Fuller, Ginger Rogers, Nancy Morgan, Barbara Bush. ALTO CLARINET—Cordelia Jones. BASS CLARINET — Alan Fishleder. BASSOON—Jim Stringham. ALTO SAXOPHONES — Susan Grannis, Tom Wilkins. TENOR SAXOPHONE—Ken Romley. BARITONE SAX—Lon Calhoun. FRENCH HORNS—

With Music In Their Hearts . . .

HIT IT! Dance Band, the Kool Kats, won wide popularity for their performance at numerous dances. Drummer Merlin Webb, cropped out of pic, paced the rhythm boys to exciting tempos.

They say it's sometimes difficult for a musician to secure jobs. That old saw was proven false this year by the Bobcat Band, which played at everything from the Rodeo Parade to a Carnival dance which was enjoyed by all.

Playing and practicing in Central's spacious new Band Room, report band members, puts a positive attitude into their playing. They realize that practice is the important quality in making a fine band, and all have spent long hours polishing their music and timing until it smacked of perfection. Keep it up musicians.

The band played at pep assemblies, shopping center concerts, grammar school open houses, and parades, including the big J. C. World Championship Rodeo Parade. Nine Central musicians were chosen for All State honors, possibly this is a record number.

With the performances, the band and its individual members won recognition and important excellence awards. Band seniors got a Dads' Club award, and the band itself won first place at the Fair, and a special award for their performance in the annual Rodeo.

Practice Made Them Perfect

CHORALIERS—(Bottom): Armstrong, Kamn, Klemmer, Willis, Kruczek, Flaxmeyer, Carpenter, Johnson, Seal, Anderson, Brooks. CENTER: Stacy, Mastin, Corbus, Hayden, Essley, Apolito, Keating, Cave, Bentson, Erickson, Dunbar, Davis. TOP: Campbell, Hankins, Hupt, Gardner, Builder, Clyde, Roberts, Johnson, Stevens, Ressel, Von Blum, Bozman, Hendrix, Hauser, Van Bebber. Every girl practiced diligently to keep Choraliers at the top.

Our Melodious Choraliers, Debs

"Sit back, relax, and pull the cotton out of your ears, for you'll certainly want to hear the Choraliers!" Comprised solely of girls, this fine singing group has a sound all its own. Always on the move, they participated in over 19 performances. Highlights were Christmas Carols at Tower Plaza, and at the Crippled Children's Christmas Party, and two performances at the Phoenix Home Fair. As a tradition they sing annually at CeHS's Farewell Assembly and at the commencement ceremony. They appeared on KPHO-T.V. Good Friday to win more admirers.

Choraliers do some traveling, too. Out-of-town engagements included performances at Disneyland on March 16-18, where they were accompanied by the Choir, Debutantes, Orchestra, Dixielanders, and the Madrigal Singers, and at Tucson, for The Regional Music Festival.

Want harmony? Our Debutantes take care of this in high style. They participated in 17 engagements, and added variety (and harmony) to performances of Choraliers and other musical groups. This very select group entertained at Disneyland and The Arizona Regional Music Festival. In addition, they had the honor of performing at the Southwest Regional Civitan Clubs at the Westward Ho, before Arizona VIP's, including our Governor, Paul Fannin.

DEBUTANTES ready for that first note include (front): Bentson, Smith, Hayden, Mastin. TOP ROW: Stevens, Clyde, Hankins, Dunbar, and Cleary.

TUNE-UP: Group of choral leaders try out some old fashioned harmony with Mrs. Vail at the piano. Included are Seal, Dunbar, Director Bagwell, Hauser, Von Blum, and Smith.

Tunefully At Your Service . . .

"Get us there and we'll sing," was the Concert Choir's motto this year, and they carried it out by singing all over our resort city. There was never a dull moment for the singers or for their devoted director, Mr. Bagwell. During Christmas holidays, their busiest season, they sang carols at Tower Plaza and St. Joseph's Hospital, and Central's Christmas program.

One of their recording sessions was taped for radio during Christmas week. Other engagements followed: They entertained at Simis School, CeHS's Open House, Spring Concert, Spring-O-Rama, and at the Arizona Central District Music Festival, Tempe. "At the rate we're going now, we might sell out to Mitch Miller's program," chuckled Director Bagwell.

Central High School Concert Orchestra

One of Central High's most talented groups, the Madrigals, is a small group of students with exceptional singing ability, who specialize in harmony. Amazingly enough, they need no accompaniment. They have performed at the Civitan Club, Camelback High, and have also participated in the PTA Open House program.

Other engagements included the Arizona Central District Music Festival, and a Disneyland songfest with other choral groups. When it comes to musicians and singers of all kinds, Central High has quality plus, parents, students, and their many audiences all agree! Interest, combined with talent, is difference!

Our Madrigals Harmonize

NO NEED for accompaniment when you can blend voices the way our Madrigals can! Here are (front) Florence Lodge, Melinda Koenig, Raedeen Rushton, Kathy Burnett, Laura Skelton, Lolly Heath. TOP: Jeff Smith, Richard Mayer, Terry Dostert, Jerry Milner, Bob Bentle, Bob Naefke.

ORCHESTRA PERSONNEL, by instrument, includes: TRUMPET—Allen Abromovitz, Steve Chambers, Shep Hume. PIANO—Mike Anderson, Mike Sanders. BASS VIOLIN — John Bagwell. VIOLIN — John Beall, Bob Bentle, Ruth Davidson, Helen Edwards, Roberta Elliott, Pam Joseph, Linda Mueller, Lillian Staudt, Jerry Willetts. CLARINET—Anne Bassett ,Bob Blanchard, Susanne Fritts, Clayton Helms, Tom Liston. BASS CLARINET—Bob Seabrooks. TROMBONE—Phill Bodenhorn, Steve Liston. FLUTE—Betty Eberhard, JoAnn Lebs, Cristie McGuire. FRENCH HORN—Gretchen Elliott. CELLO—Bill McLeod, Allen Nemeth. PERCUSSION—Ron MacDonald, Merlin Webb, Bill Cunningham. Mr. William Bagwell, an accomplished and talented musician, is orchestra director.

They Make You Come Alive . . . !

If there are any "dead-beats" in the audience at the beginning, they'll be "live wires" at the end after listening to a few selections from the talented Bobcat Concert Orchestra. The orchestra is directed by William Bagwell, a very capable musician himself. Unlike orchestras that put you to sleep, ours keeps you awake, and whispering to yourself, "1 and-a-2-and-a-3-and-a-4. . . . . ." Director Bagwell stresses "technique", an all-important item in producing good results. The Concert Orchestra has been highly complimented after this year's performances. This is the result of perfected co-ordination and hard practice.

The orchestra has blended many musical classics in with ear-catching popular tunes. The audience generally enjoys a variety of songs, one of the proud achievements of our Music Department.

During the 1961-62 season, the orchestra presented a variety of programs, directed to please all. They played at CeHS's Yule program and assembly, followed by Open House on February 28. Practices for the Spring Concert, the Disneyland trip during rodeo vacation, the Spring-O-Rama, Talent Show, Arizona Central District Music Festival, the Arizona Regional Music Festival at Tucson, and the Tri-High Orchestra Concert at North High kept musicians in shape till their final performance, the traditional Farewell Assembly. As usual, this appearance will also draw high praise.

Christmas Capers

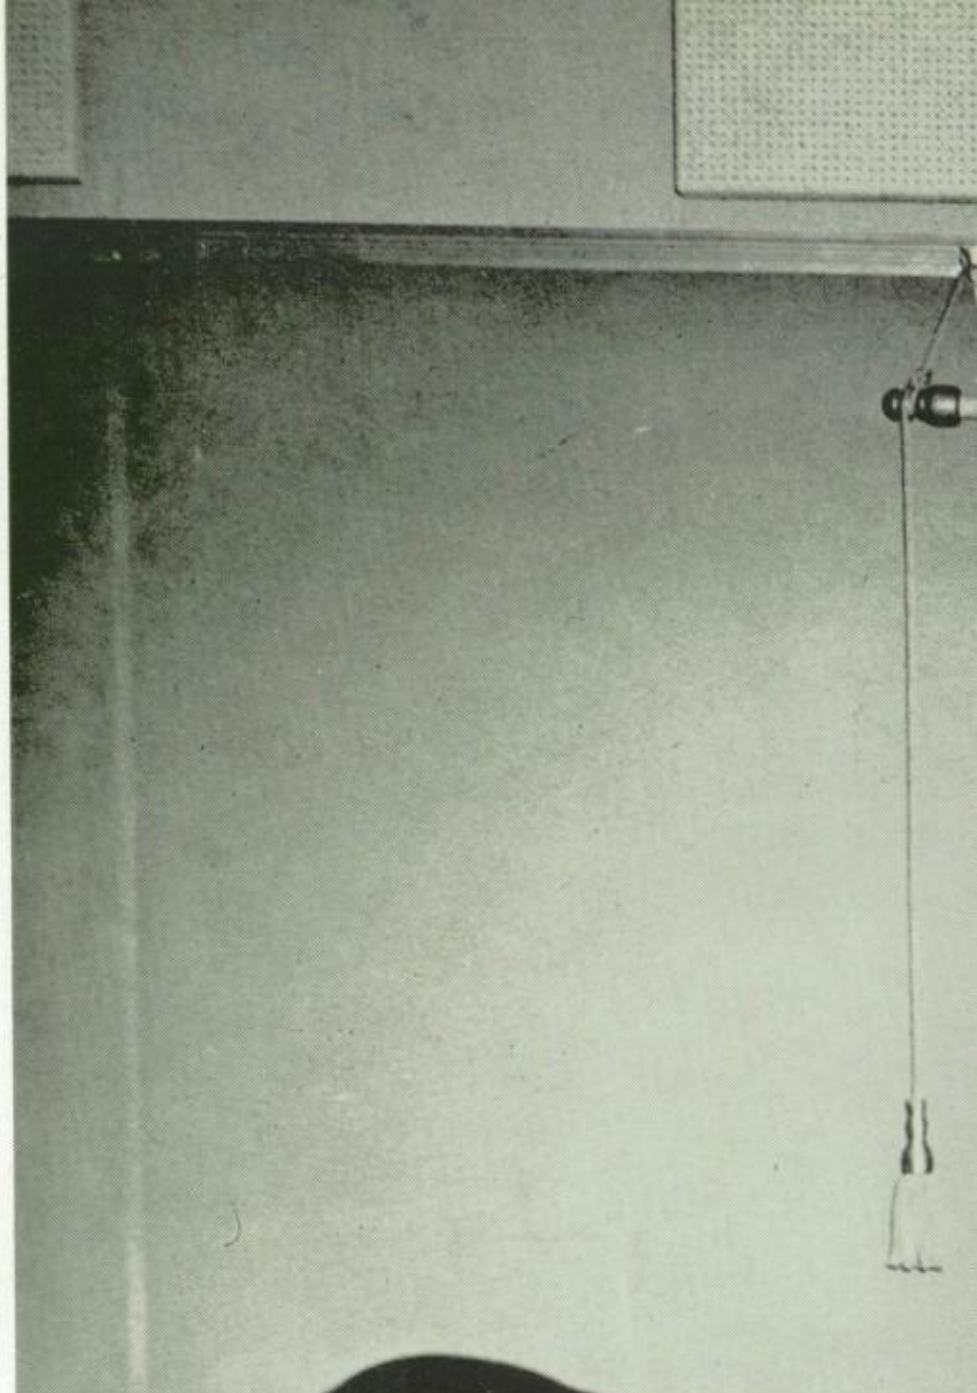
Give, Nick

EVERYBODY seems interested in getting, rather than giving, St. Nicholas seems to feel as Tuveson and Shields (upper left) put the pressure on the jolly fellow for a big Christmas. RIGHT: Stern has Dent almost convinced he is the answer to every romantic girl's wish. LOWER LEFT: I'll take this one! Milling and Elardo of the Art Club try out some of the gifts they have gathered and repaired for the Children's Home. RIGHT: Give us the Old Fashioned Girl every time! Linda Dahl is all business. . . . typing up yearbook copy while in Easter bonnet, bustle, and all (part of her Rodeo Day garb).

DOLLARS for Scholars! Key Club's drive meant new hope for talented students of low means.



Organizations

KEY CLUB
KEY CLUB

HECTIC JOB? Yes, but there's satisfaction in meeting deadlines and seeing a job well done, assert Business Mgr. Marty Shultz and Editor Sue Keilly.

No Loafing Allowed In 9-225!

Yearbook work on the surface, seems simple. You take pictures, write a little, and turn the package over to an obliging printer! Oh, yeah? A "good picture" might require hours and the talents of several skilled persons. And this annual contains several thousand pictures!

Copy must meet high standards, to go along with good judgment in selection of pictures. One foregoes school holidays, except to work in the Publications Office. The staff then can proceed without fear of interruption by the ringing of class bells. Also, money must be raised to pay increased costs of production. Chase after the ads! HURRY! Deadline's here!

OLD FOCUS AT HOME: Centralian Annual's photographers never let a poor picture get by without "complimenting" its creator. But fortunately there were more sharp photos than fuzzy ones, and friendship still exists among Bruce Moody, Steve Liston, Louis Stern, and Jim Greenway. Our cameramen also sold ads, and read proof.

NO LOAFERS HERE! Mitchell, Cohen, and Fields (lower left) check ad copy for ECHOES, while (right) Golden, Feustel, Ramras, Livezey, and Burton work on picture trimming and layouts. UPPER: Golden and Dahl type away while (right) Von Blum, Stapley, Rigler, and Kroloff watch Zivney whip up what could be a likely story.

Keep Busy And Impress People!

LOOK BUSY and you'll look more important! At least that could be the impression one gets as he peeks into the Publications Office. Well, there's plenty to keep busy with! Copy to write, pictures and negatives to sort, proof to read, ads to check and layouts to draw. . . .When you call it a "yearbook", you're talking in terms of 12 months pushed into eight, if The Centralian is to be ready in time.

Once having moved into their own office, the staff members were able to breathe easier. First semester, when sharing the room with English teachers, they had to gather and pack as each period ended. It took half a period to get the stuff out to work on . . . and almost as long to put it away! Now, they just get the work out and there it stays until the editor or the publications adviser yells, "PRESS TIME!"

Industrious Journalists

ECHOES EDITOR Paul Schatt and Managing Editor Chris Hall labored mightily to produce six sparkling and newsy editions of the school paper. But they also lent important aid to the Annual Staff when deadlines called.

Central Echoes Claims Ideals

CENTRAL ECHOES is produced entirely through student efforts. The ECHOES also takes stands on important issues of international, national, local, and school affairs.

Editor Paul Schatt believes, "An aimless newspaper will not survive long. Integrity, honesty, and high ideals must be held sacred for a newspaper to acquire reader respect.

"The ECHOES will take such positions it believes are most logical and intelligent on all problems. On matters from world affairs to school activities, we hold no 'sacred cows.' We criticize what we feel warrants intelligent criticism. The same goes for praise.

"But editorials don't make a newspaper. We have built school reporting up to a point where you can expect and receive, good, solid, fair reporting on school events without prejudice or so-called 'slanting'."

Those who produce The ECHOES hold to the motto: "If you've got something to do that's worth doing, it's worth doing right." There is no substitute for hard work and diligent concentration — backed up by the truth.

QUILL & SCROLL members, representing our best journalists, kept things humming. Checking a copy of The ECHOES are (seated) Golden, Jady Barlow, Sheldon, Opre, Von Blum, Schatt, Davidson. STANDING: Buros, Stern, Hall, Luckie, Stevens, Samuelson, Fletcher, Jody Barlow, Cohen. MISSING: Sue Keilly, Gail Hart, Mark Soubie.

Parnassus • Future Teachers

FUTURE Teachers of America have high goals, and a real challenge, agree Sinhoui, Maxon, Shepherd, Griffen, Krucky, (standing) Bostrom, Katz, Sowers, and Mrs. Lu Boyle, sponsor of FTA.

Yea, Cats! Give With A Cheer!

Pep Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Chord, has supported all Central games and social activities with enthusiasm and true school spirit. In their reserved section at sports events, the red sweatshirted Pep clubbers were always seen and heard cheering. Because of them and other fans the Bobcats fought harder.

As a part of the over-all Girls' League program, Junior Girls' League was organized and industrious this year, selling Nestle's Crunch bars as their main project. Each girl contributed food and clothing for adopted families at Christmas and Thanksgiving. A gingerbread sale netted more money to aid Girls' League.

JUNIOR GIRLS' LEAGUE—(bottom): Parks, Blair, Lay, Branigan, Waters, Buehler. ROW 2: Kurzcek, Mieger, Dahl, Hoffman, Nathanson, Gelt, Stevens, Mueller, Dent, Heller. TOP: Fasani, Barlow, Griffin, Ellis, Crayton, Lodge, Hall, Schulze, Livezey, Staudt, and Losacker. Remember their Carnival "Garter Throw"?

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS—(top row): Kidwell, Bradshaw, Gillam, North, Brownam, Sabin, Maxon, Hinderleiter, Fennell. BOTTOM ROW: Johnston, Foltz, Burns Pres. Luckie, Fields, Mrs. Christian, Fritts, and Waters.

Students With A Solid Future

Future Homemakers' membership rose first of the year when a Freshman Orientation Tea was held along with a Membership Tea for the whole school. Then came pizza parties, bake sales, speakers, a fashion show, FHA Week, and two Teachers' Coffee Breaks as a tribute to the faculty. FHA girls also made cheer baskets for hospitalized children and had a big ring toss booth in the School Carnival.

Stop for a minute and take a look at those destined to lead our generation businesswise —the Future Business Leaders of America. These students not only get together for fun and recreation, but also to promote business and urge others into this field. Activities this year included sponsoring a needy family at Christmas, field trips to business establishments, and their big annual Farewell Dinner.

Thinking Problems Through . . .

International Kiwanis can justly be proud of Key Club at Central. Usually active, Key this year outdid itself with an ambitious program labeled "Dollars For Scholars." Designed to provide help for worthy but poor boys who should be in college, the plan reaches out to assure that education for many, many more.

CHECKMATE? Not usually, if you are matched with one of the experts from Central's Chess Club. Chances are good you will be the one to yelp for help! Not as card games or tennis, chess attracts students who have a yen for thinking problems out. The centuries-old game has immense appeal to intellectuals.

CHESS CLUB—(sitting): Weinberg, Feuer, Marks, Cummings, Perkins, LaPrade. STANDING: Bond, Starrsman, Mr. Hinkle, Co - Sponsor; Forstag, Thomas, Lommen, Mr. Hackett, Co - Sponsor; Grosberg, and Michaels.

HOKUS-POCUS . . . Holy Smokus! What's happening to that poor chap on the table? Why nothing much except the Hare Raisers Club is about to float him around the room for a change. Magicians with strange plans for victim John Pearson are, from left, Romley, Sponsor Morrow, Harris, Knight, Apostol, Peterson, and Londy.

Want Entertainment? Call Us!

It took a bit of doing, but Central High School's Magic Club finally got going. Sparked by one or two ambitious magicians and a nudge or two from Sponsor Morrow, the group grew and, sort of, flourished. Following a campaign via Central Echoes and the bulletin, the club found a new name, Hare Raisers. Equipped with a bag of tricks and a fancy name they gave seven performances off campus to groups around the Valley. They hope to increase Hare Raisers a healthy 200 per cent in 1962 - 63.

Boys who can really ham it up are owners of Station K7DKU, the Electronics Club . . . lately Radio Hams. Guided by an expert in the field, Mr. Shehane, the boys have explored many sides of this wonderful new realm which is right next to space adventuring. Many will continue study in electronics to become tomorrow's leaders in communications mediums. Others will carry with them a lifetime of interest in electronics, using their knowledge to develop hobbies that will assure happy hours.

Satisfaction From Good Deeds

To learn, study! Only the dull or self-satisfied are willing to accept what others do or say as the guide to truth. Not the serious students of science at Central! Truth may have many facets, and one can find answers only by searching them out for himself. Wide reading and individual research help us progress.

Artistic interests find many mediums of satisfactory expression. Not only do Central's students experiment with the various art forms but they also make practical application of their learning. This year old toys were repainted and repaired and charitable organizations gained from our young artists' activities.

Speak Out! Let 'Em Hear You!

Speech students of today will be the Voice of Tomorrow. That we can go along with. Serious students of drama and speech can express themselves more effectively, with an economy of words and an abundance of good sense. Masque and Gavel Club, Central's answer to the hesitant of speech and the fumbler of facts, is aggresively active in self expression.

With Sponsor Don Krischak and President Rik Karon sparking the program, M & G introduced what surely will be an annual speech contest. Other events included a city-wide gathering of all Masque and Gavel groups at Central; sponsoring the annual faculty-senior basketball game; caring for a needy family at Christmas; induction and installation of officers in May. Final event: a cool swimming party and a fond farewell, May 29.

They Like To 'Roam' In Rome

WHEN IN ROME do as you please! Students of Latin have come so familiar with many of the Roman customs of Caesar's time they feel right at home in an "ancient atmosphere" such as was recreated at their annual banquet in March. What a gay affair that proved to be!

Travel talks were frequent. Mrs. Wiebe has been a-roamin' all over the Eternal City, and with color camera, too! Other personal experiences brought life into the classroom. Skits, research, and frequent parties added zip to what some might think a "dead" language.

LOVE THIS Latin lunch! Annual Legio Decima banquet found slaves bending low to serve advanced students such as Leverant (left) Klebe, and Snapp. Party was held at home of Sponsor Wiebe, each furnishing his costume.

Culture Cultivation Can Be Fun!

Like bridge? Many Bobcats are fans of the game and are members of Central's Bridge Club. Sponsored by Mr. Lewis, Bridge Club was organized so that interested students could play as well as learn more about this interesting game. Tom Liston and John Maples are two of the club's most outstanding players.

Los Buenos Amigos, Spanish Club, meets every week to encourage the use of Spanish and familiarize members with Spanish customs, literature, and arts. They Planned No Dull Moments

What makes the world tick, why politicians do as they do, how philosophy might save us all from nuclear oblivion . . . these are a few of the angles Humanities Club members kick around at their regular meetings. Teen-age philosophers may conjure up some terrific notions, but as Sponsor Chris Carnahan might say, "If they're thinking, something good will come out of it . . . perhaps!" Classics, fine motion pictures, and tapes from famous plays were a part of the club's interesting program.

Die Deutschen Wildkatzen had another great year, headed by Herr Wilhelm Kendall, sponsor. The agenda never lacked for activity; plans were made well in advance of each event and everything progressed smoothly. Notable speakers included Uli Jagau, South Mountain High's Foreign Exchange student from Germany; Mrs. Meyer, teacher of Latin and German in Germany. She visited the German classes all day then accepted a question-answer assignment at a lively club meeting.

Pays Them Well To Be So 'Y's . . .

Tri-Fideles combined service and salesmanship for a successful year in 1961-62. Working girls devoted their service hours to Golden Gate Settlement and the March of Dime drive. Money was earned through several bake sales. The girls co-ordinated activities through the YMCA and helped start the Junior group.

Organized at the beginning of the second semester, Junior Tri-Hi-Y has laid groundwork for a top Senior Tri-Hi-Y next year. After setting up a constitution and dividing into seven committees, the girl ran a photo booth at the Carnival and sold gingerbread for funds. Service proects, outside speakers, and a splash party at the Y.M.C.A. pool rounded out club activities and a tremendous half-year at CeHS.

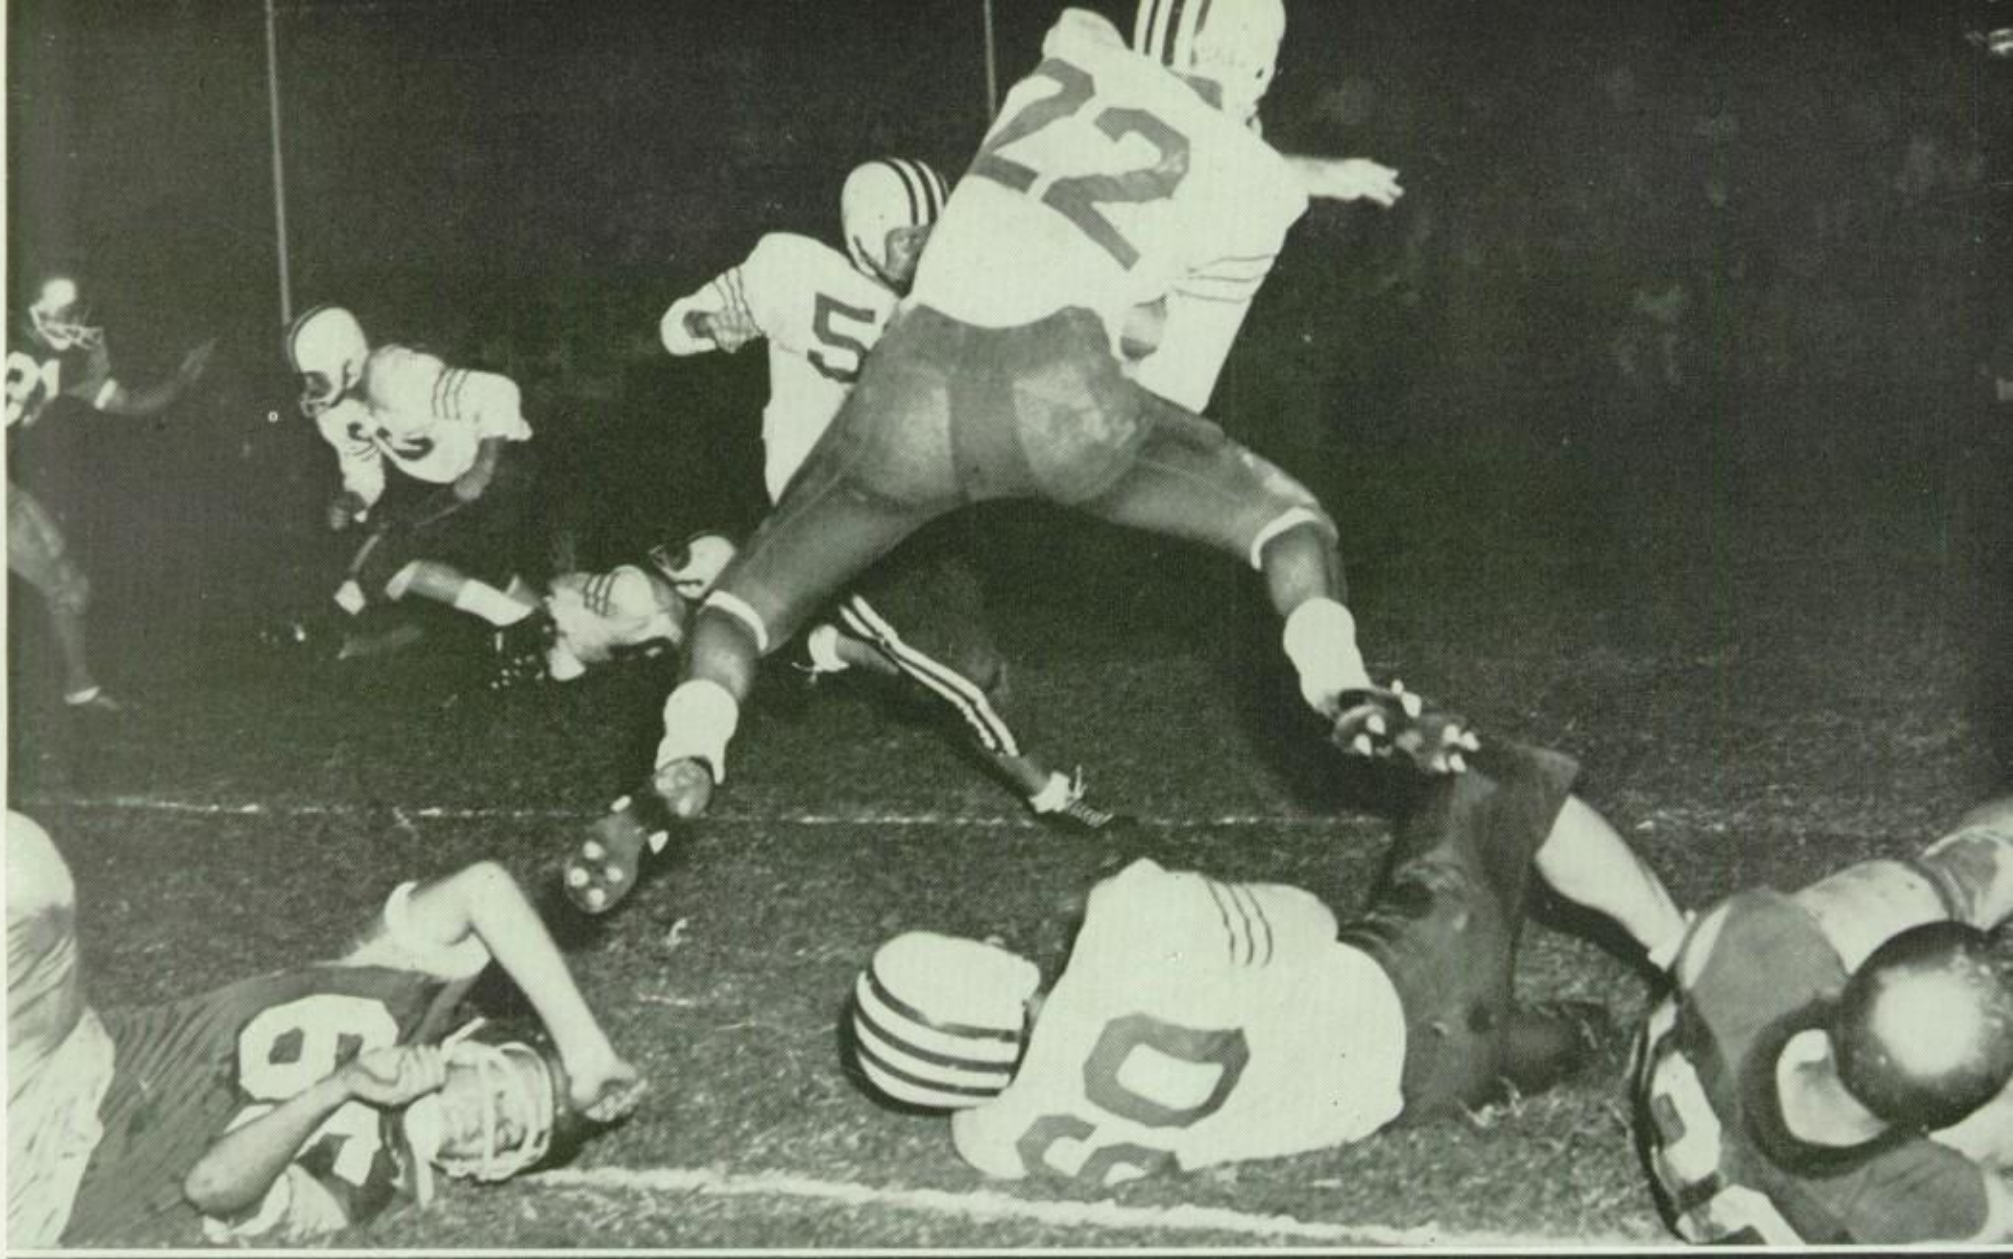
We Almost Won—Usually!

With one of the most potentially-powerful prep teams in the state, Central, alas, also claimed ownership to one of the roughest schedules. While the team frequently showed sparks of brilliance, in the end the 'Cats just couldn't top the well-piled competition, finished the season 2-7.

Under Coach O'Jay Bourgeois and line coach Dick Trimmer, the Bobcats opened fast, outscoring the Southside schools 14-6 in the District Carnival. It was one of the team's three bright nights of the season. Plays and patterns were executed well and blocking was sharp.

In the official season opener, the Bobcats took a 7-0 halftime lead over South, and came back to lose it, another touchdown, and eventually the game. The Rebels, easy game for Central in the first half, revised their strategy, and tallied twice in the third period. Game finally was lost in the last six seconds, when the Bobcats scored, but couldn't convert the point after touchdown, and fell 14-13.



Carnival!

ALL FALL DOWN (Except one)—Mike Foley (top) may be a little old for leapfrog, but it's win any way you can, so he vaults over teammate Mike Johnson and two Carl Hayden players in District Carnival. Bobcats proved power of Northside Schools, outscored opposition schools 14-6. BELOW: Gary Stahl almost broke loose for a large gain— but Hayden's Howard Wharton taking matters (or Gary) into his own hands, stopped the run. Carnival action was fast and rough throughout evening.

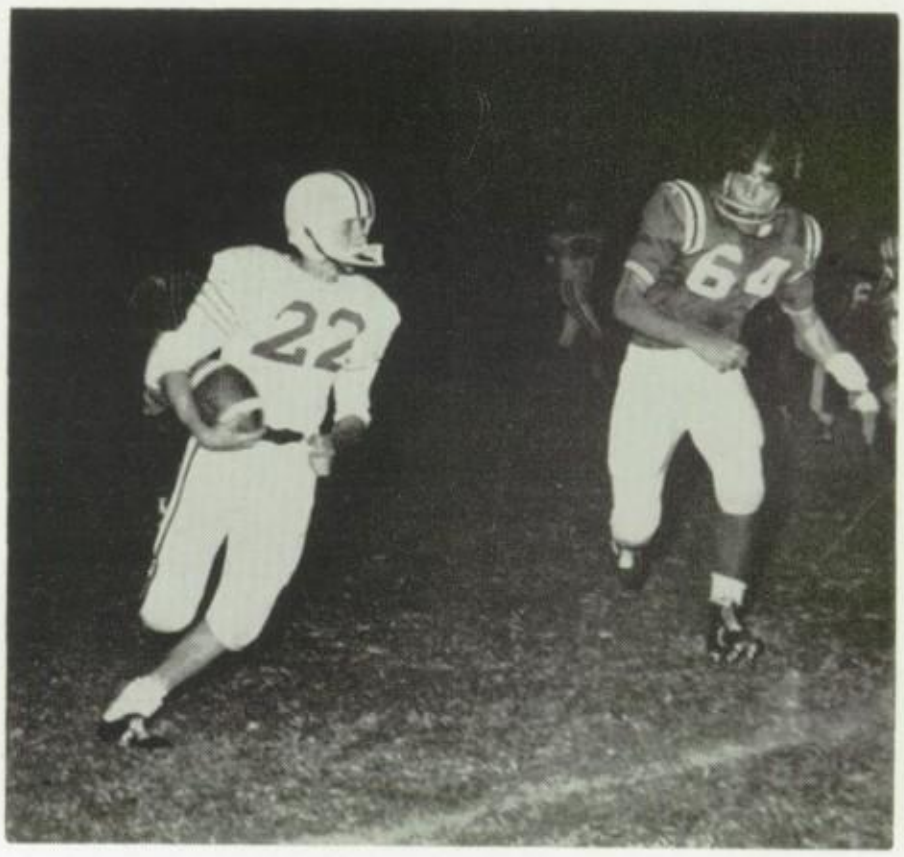
BLOCKING BACK—Yuma's halfback throws an important block against Central defenders, as the fullback breaks loose for a 12-yard gain. Yuma showed stout ground attack, but had as many air troubles as Central.

Mustang Hoofs Trample Cats

North's rough Mustangs next dropped the Bobcats, 20-13, in a game that wasn't as close as the score indicated. In the penalty-ridden contest (the Bobcats were penalized 117 yards, North 85), North held the edge all the way, with two quick touchdowns in the first quarter. Using a ground game which sprawled Bobcat defenders all over the gridiron, North scored twice on desperation third-down passes, added the winning score in the final period.

The Cats sprang to life in the last quarter, but too late came the rally, as a last-ditch pass failed from Central's 22 when the gun sounded. Central then lost to West, Camelback, Tempe and Carl Hayden, in virtual replays of the North Phoenix High School contest.

We said "potentially-powerful." That potential was used—in Bobcat wins over Phoenix Union and Catalina. The Cats completely dominated the Coyotes, shutting them out 13-0 at Montgomery Stadium. Union, hopeful after seeing previous press clippings, was shocked to see Central's power unfold instead of fold-up. John Lane played his best line game.



AWWAAAY HE GOES!—Mike Foley looks trapped by West defender, but picture was taken before he zigged—the defender zagged—and our Foley was off to a sizeable ground gain.

ONE OF THE FEW—Bobcat Bill Hershfield demonstrated what Central's passes should do when everything goes well. Hershfield caught the pass, fought off Carl Hayden defenders, and gained what could have been an important first down. Hayden just didn't cooperate, however, and shut out the Bobcats by a very humiliating 19-0 score.

Hooray, Fans! We Won One!

There was no question about the Catalina game—the Bobcats played their most consistent, powerful game, and trompped the Trojans 25.0. The long trip to Tucson was worthwhile, as the Bobcats gained a total of 308 yards offense, 219 of them in rushing. Catalina couldn't get past their 50-yard line all evening, and were held to —5 yards rushing.

Ray Hunter, Mike Foley, and John Lane carried most for Central, picking up top yardage nearly every play. It took Central just four plays to score in the first period, and they kept them coming almost as frequently. As the gun sounded, Central was on the drive for still another touchdown, with little opposition save for Father Time. He would not wait!

JV Had Bright 4-3-1 Season

Junior varsity football squad not only bettered the record of this year's varsity — it also pointed out several promising young players to brighten next year's grid picture. With tough competition from nearly all Valley high schools, JV chalked up a 4-3-1 record, with impressive wins over North, Phoenix Union, Carl Hayden, and Tempe. The team was defeated by South, Mesa, and West. Camelback fought the Bobcats to a 13-13 stand-off in the season's only tie game.

Working with the left-overs in equipment and hand-me-downs, the junior varsity nonetheless is the only source of young players for the varsity team. Playing on the JV, a player learns from experience many hidden facts about the game of football, and gets the competition that seasons a boy for the varsity.

This year, Coaches Ruman and Troutt gave credit to seven boys for outstanding play and desire. The seven, who stand a good chance of promotion to varsity assignments, are: Larry Cooper, John Barry, Phil Bodenhorn, Paul Crecelius, Fritz Merkle, Jim Piepergerdes, and Bill McMorron. The JV squad numbered 35.

TRAFFIC JAM—How, pray tell, is a team to run a quarterback sneak when the entire town knows it's coming? That question might have been asked by West High after the Bobcats pushed the center of the line back several yards during attempted sneak.

Small, Yes, But Like Dynamite!

You don't learn sportsmanship nearly so well from the sidelines—nor the fundamentals of football. For these and other sound reasons Central again fielded Freshman A and B squads for boys too light for JV competition. While growing, the featherweight Bobcats learned the game and prepared for spots on the Big Boys' roster.

Coaches Garcia and Leitsch reported their record of 5 won, 5 lost proved "we held our own in the tough, if tiny, league."

Coaches Hoeffel and Eulberg, with athletes under 126 pounds, won 8 and lost 2 games in regular play. They stood off the heavier "A"s in a final match to lose only 13-7. Opening day 90 boys reported for the squad and there were still 60 at season's end. Five matches were with the Indian School for 4-1-0.

Up For Grabs Randy Linder and Gordon Lindstrom team up to snatch rebound from two North Mustangs as Ray Hunter watches in background. 'Cats' took most of the others, won the season finale 70-60 on Jim Walker's 22 points.

Bobcat hoopsters had their best season in history. Powered with a fast break and fine marksmanship, the team rolled to the State AA tournament, where they nabbed third place and tremendous applause from the fans.

The season's opener foretold what was to come, as the Bobcats outscored, outrebounded, and generally outplayed Carl Hayden 58-37, first of three victories over hapless Hayden. The following week, the Bobcats took an early Division III lead with an important 57-54 win over West. Randy Lindner and Jim Walker paced the Bobcats as they fought back after losing an early 13-point lead. Lindner's two freethrows under pressure iced the game for Central in the last six seconds.

The Division lead was short-lived. The Bobcats dropped next game to Camelback's Spartans, 63-49. Camelback's tight zone defense handcuffed the foe, and only Lindner was able to score as many as 13 points. Central then trounced defending State Champion Phoenix Union 65-48, in the last season game before the annual Christmas basketball tournament.

". . . WHO STAND and wait" — Pfannenstiel and Lindstrom brace for rebound as South player drives for basket. Jim Gentry attempts to block the shot. Rebels, on strength of great second half, rallied to drop the Bobcats 43-42 in last second.

We 'Hoop It Up' Hot, Cold . . .

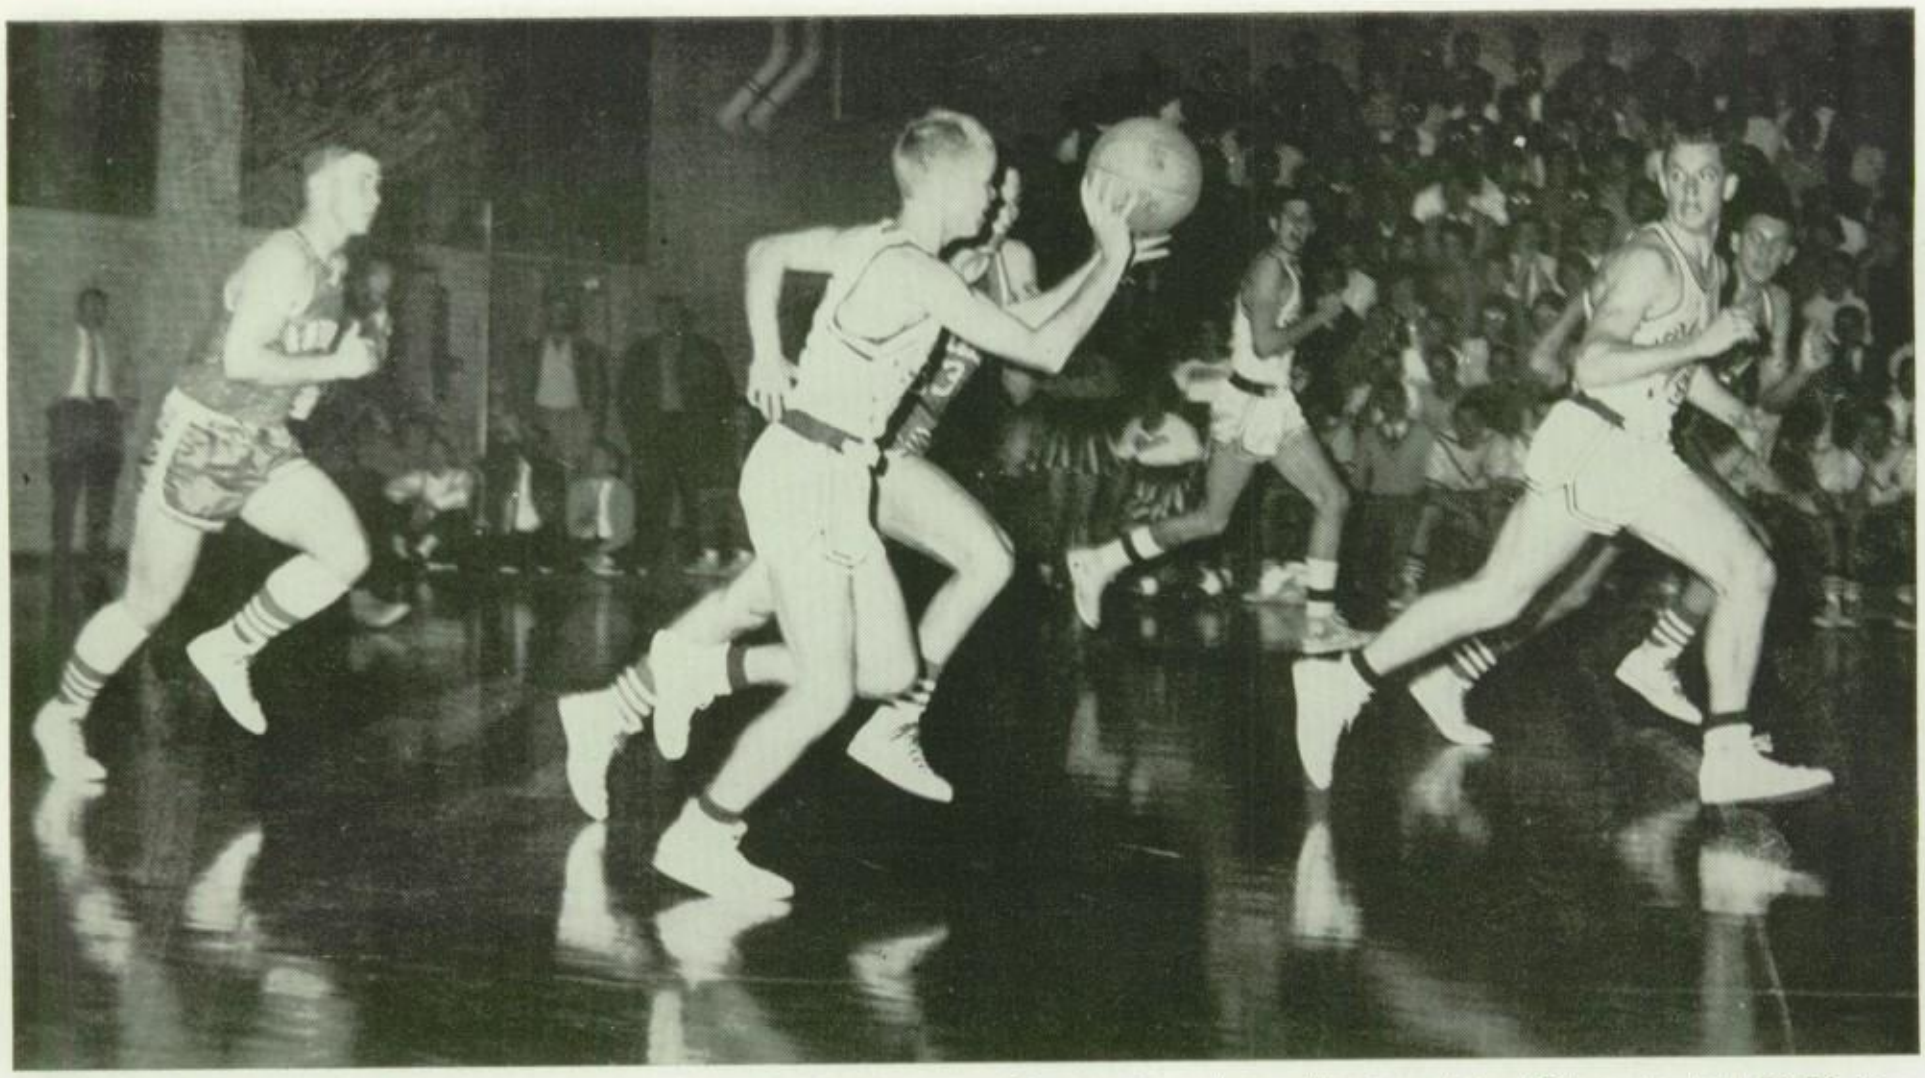
Rated as a Yule tourney favorite, Central began with a victory over Carl Hayden, then dropped successive contests to West 68-68, and North, 59-52. West finally won the tournament with an overtime victory over a determined South Mountain High team.

Beginning the second half of the season, the Cats bombed Pueblo 64-47 in the most aggressively-played game of the year. As elbows flew and players collided, Pence, Lindner, Walker, and Foster all scored in double figures for a solid victory.

In possibly the sloppiest game of the year, Central and South Mountain missed shots during the first three quarters, then put on the steam in the last period. Winzell Martin's jump shot in the last second pulled the game out for the Rebels, 43-42.

Getting into a groove of fine shooting percentages, the Cats took their next two games, against North, 70-48, and Rincon, 62-51. Bobcats scored an amazing 55 per cent of their first half shots, and hung on to put down a late Rincon rally.

Against Division 2 champ Mesa, the Bobcats controlled rebounds, had the game's top scorer in Randy Lindner and a 12-point lead in the third quarter, only to fall prey to a Mesa rally and lose, 55-53. Lindner scored 23 points and pulled down numerous rebounds. Power at the foul lone paid off for Mesa; 12 of their last 18 points were on free throws.



OFF TO THE RACES—Bobcat fast break begins as Jim Walker, playmaker, rifles pass to Randy Lindner in Camelback game. Once again a late rally stoned the 'Cats, who lost 51-50 in last six seconds. Team couldn't break Spartan jinx all season.

Winding It Up With A Flourish

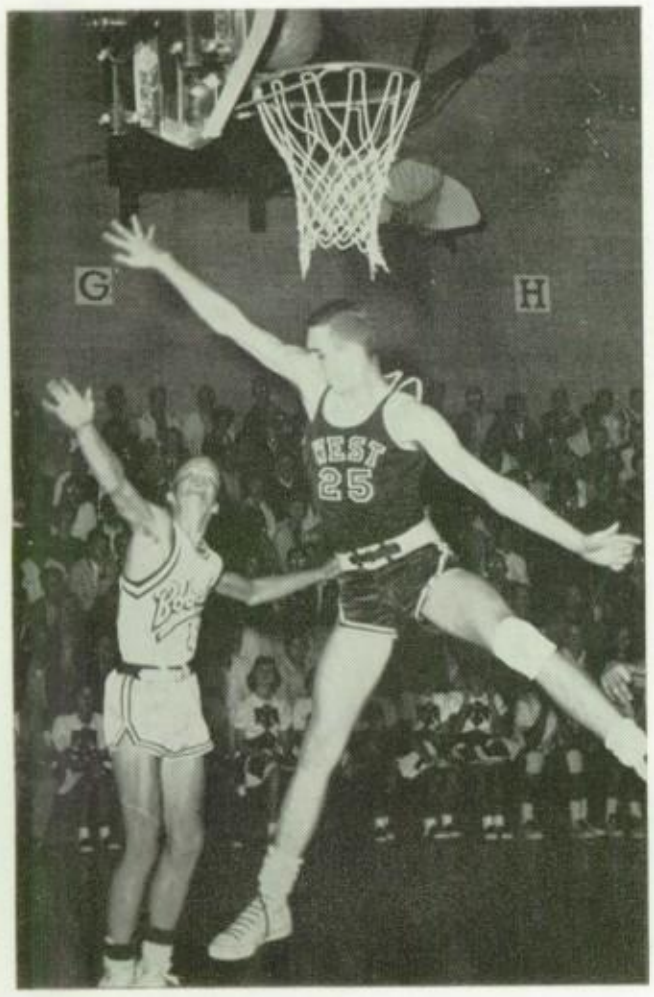
West broke loose from a 15-15 deadlock to dump the Cats 55-46 in their next game. An important Division 3 contest, it would have given the team an open line to the league lead. Smarting from this loss, the Bobcats ran Yuma all over the gym the next day, downing the cellar-dwellers 60 to 35.

In a thriller against Camelback, the Bobcats fell in the last 11 seconds, dropping the game 51-50 after a mixup had many mistakenly thinking CeHS had won. What a sad letdown!

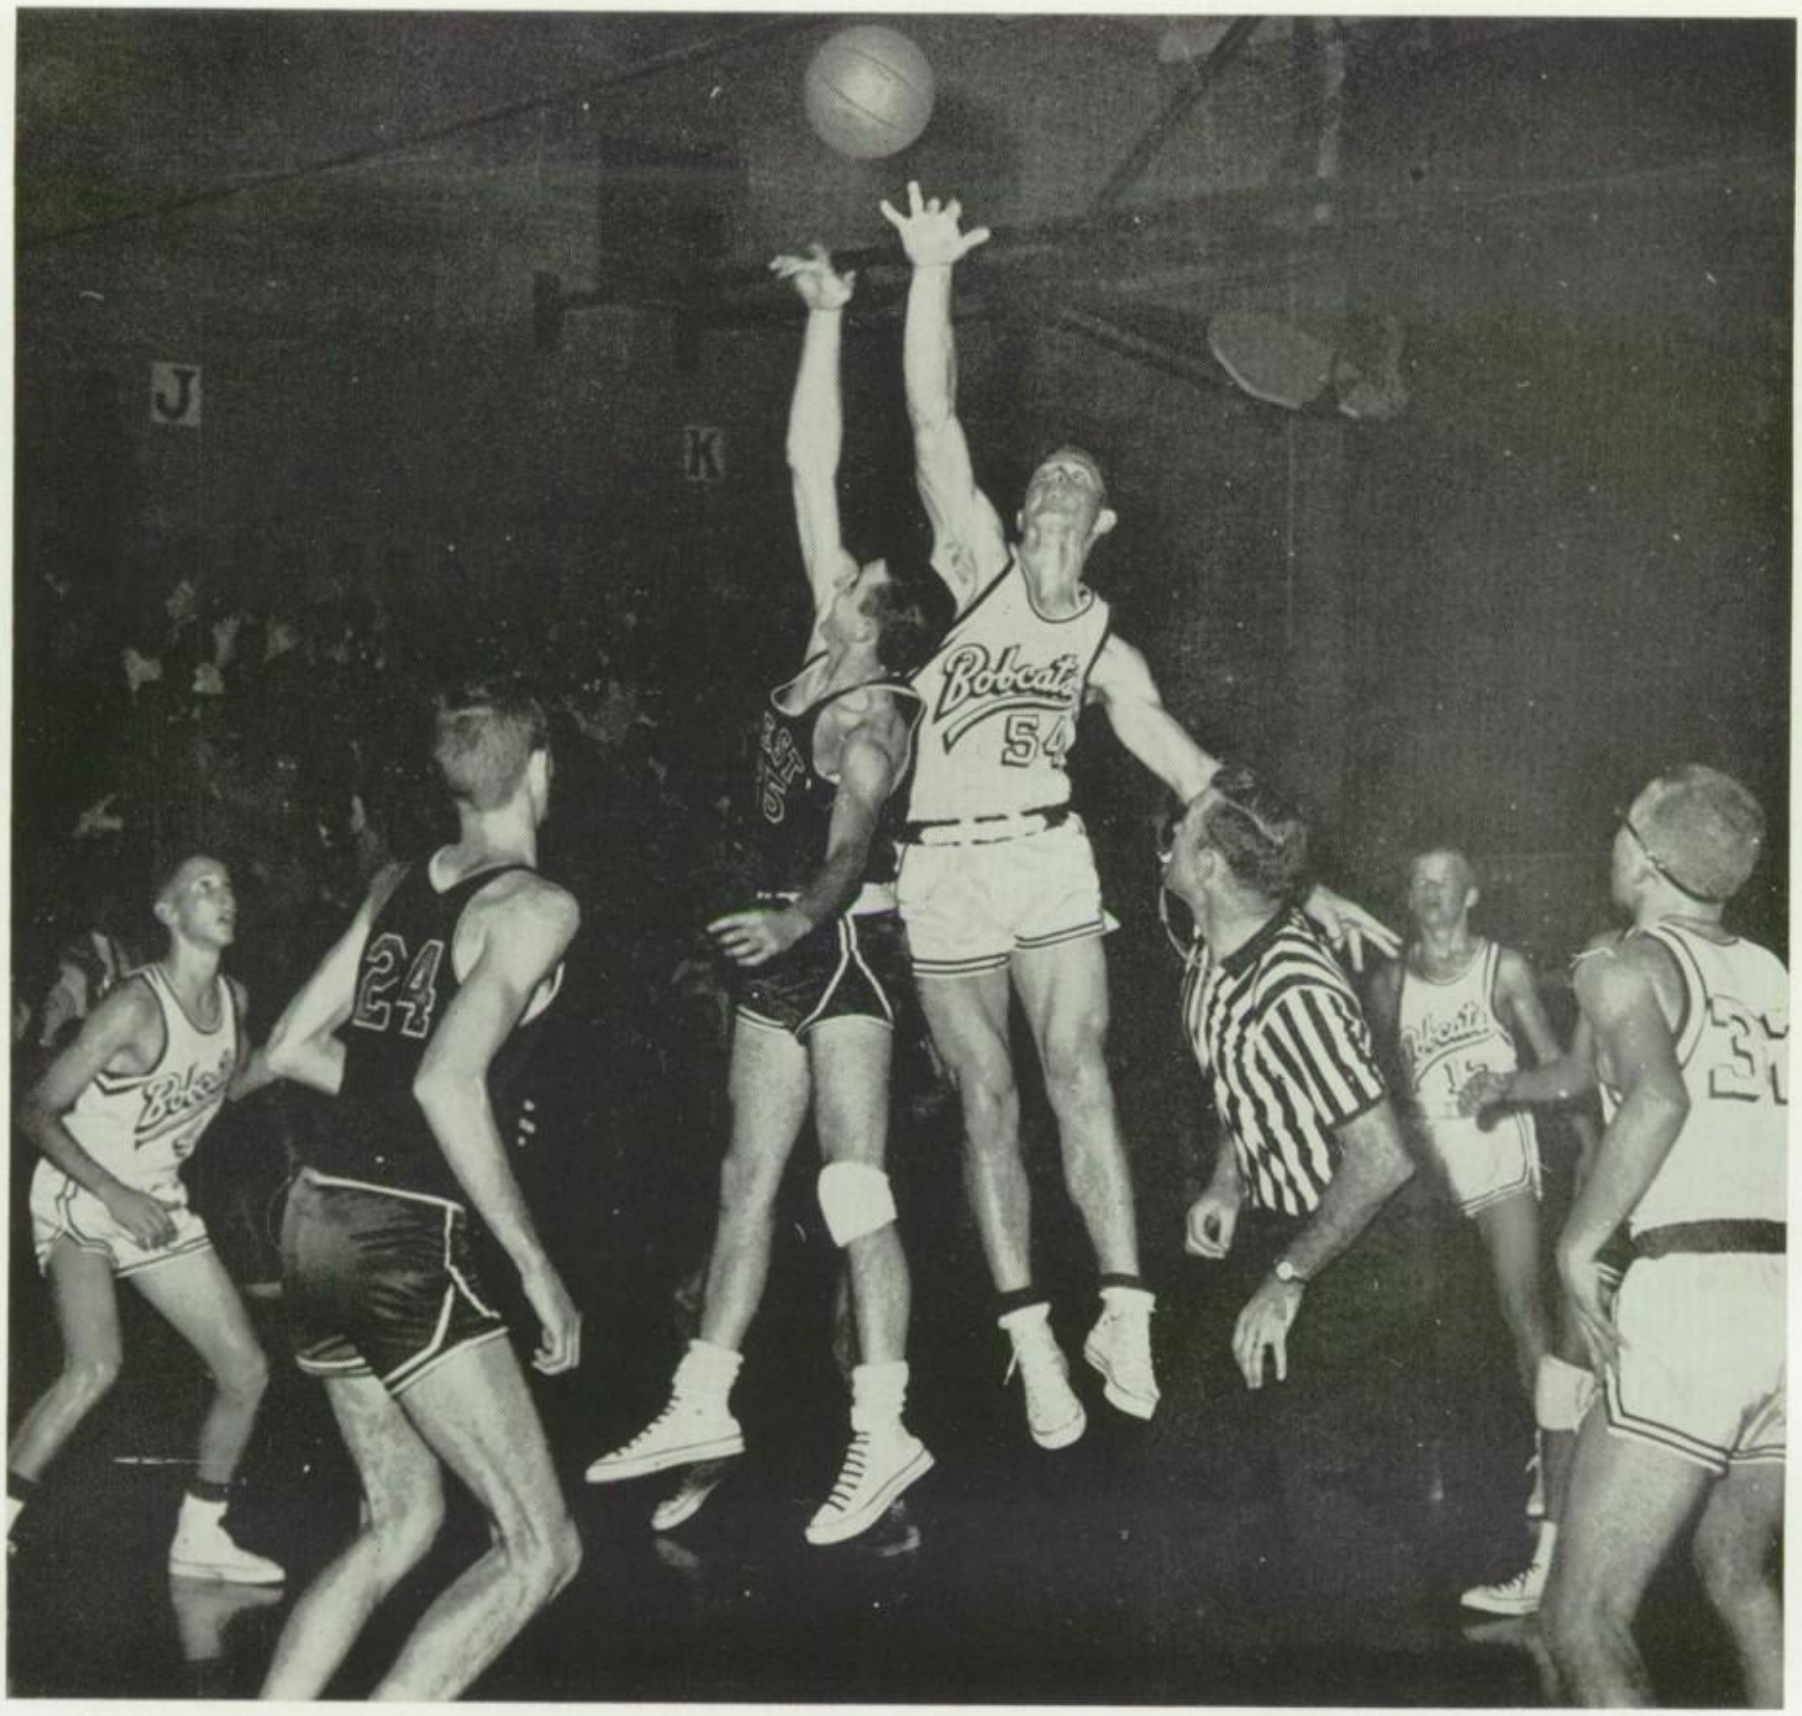
After this, the Bobcats had successive wins over Carl Hayden 68-47, Yuma 65-58, South Mountain 83-69, and North 70-60.

In the State Class AA Tournament, the Bobcats downed St. Mary's and met contender Tucson High at Arizona State University gym. The Bobcats held an early lead, but Tucson's big gun, 6'-9" center Ray Kosanke opened up during the second half, and drove the Badgers to a breath-taking 54-52 win.

The Bobcats took third place in the state finals the next evening, after downing South Mountain by a large margin. Ray Hunter, Randy Lindner and Jim Walker were top players in the championship games, but Coach Troutt had high praise for all his hoopsters.



YA' MISSED! — Bobcat Walker gets off a good shot in West game, despite desperate blocking attempt by T-Bird defender. West dropped Bobcats 55-46, in this early season engagement.

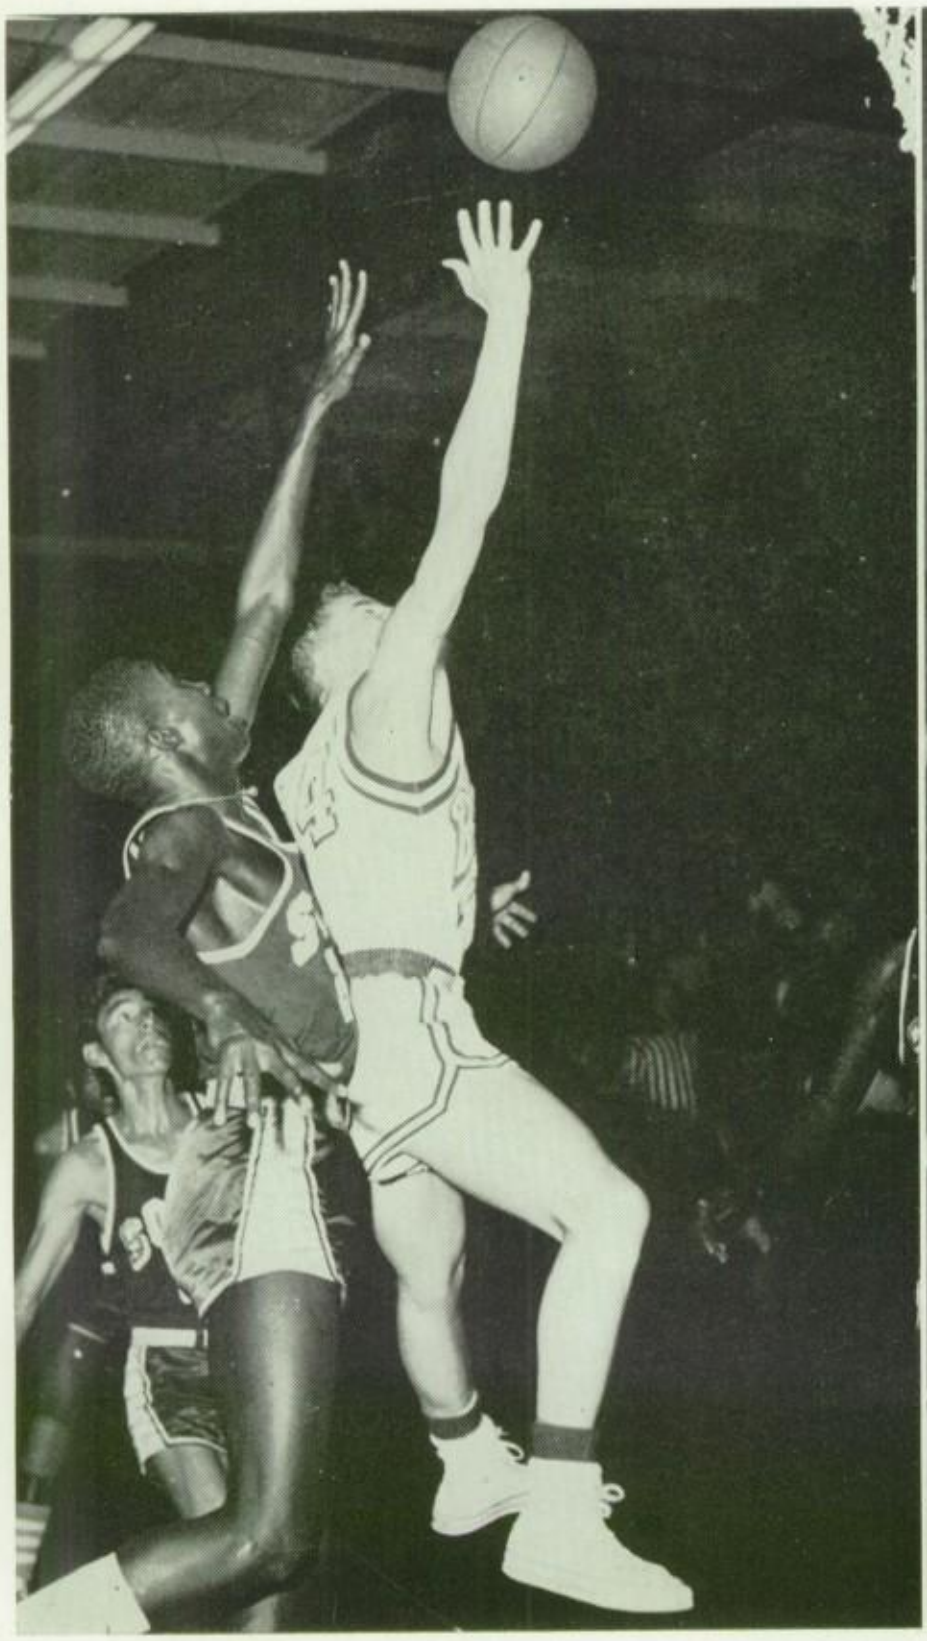


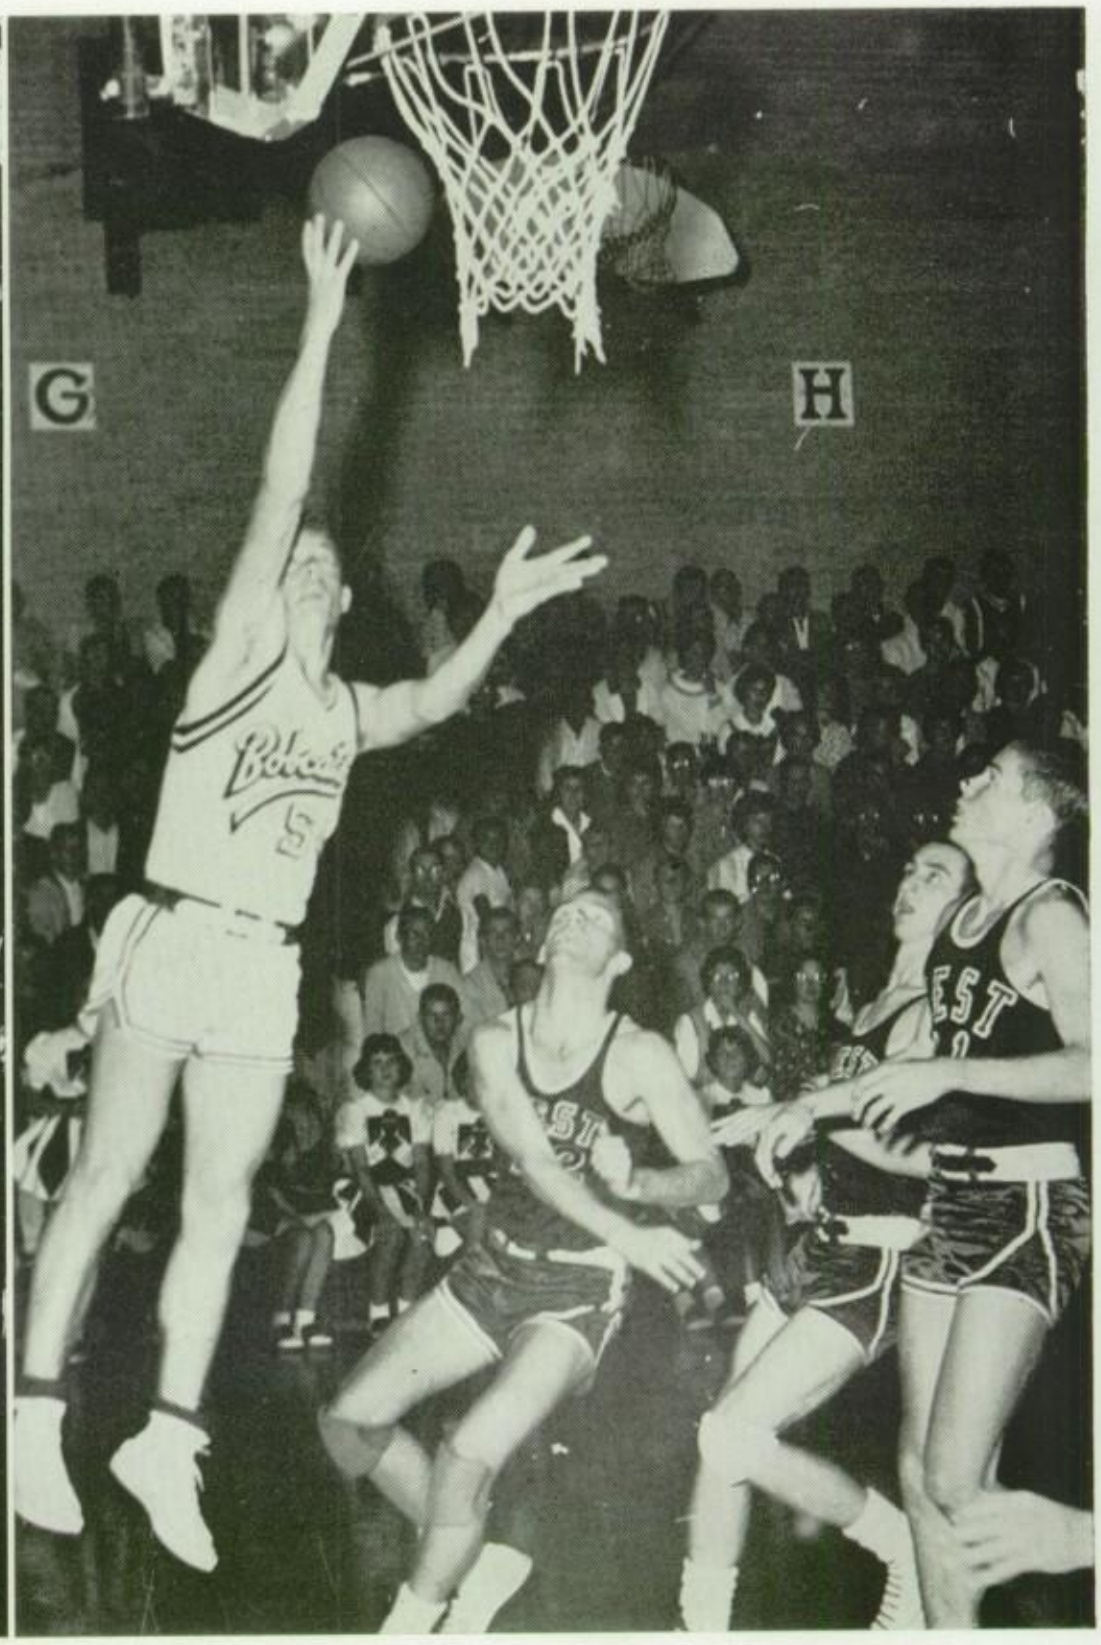
JUST A QUARTER-INCH away—But that quarter-inch is most important in this basketball game, as Randy Lindner jumps for ball against West. Bobcats Hunter, Walker, and McAdam prepare to follow developing play.

Suddenly Our Cats Come Alive

With a disappointing 8-7 mark going into mid-February, the varsity cagers suddenly exploded to sweep their last four regular season games, knock off two opponents in the District playoffs, and finish third in the State Tournament, where they barely missed upsetting State Champion, unbeaten Tucson High.

The Cats started their victory splurge on February 6, easily defeating Carl Hayden 68-47. A scrappy Yuma quintet was the next Bobcat victim, 65-56. In probably their biggest win the Cats, for the first time, dumped strong South Mountain 83-69, with four Bobcat regulars hitting in double figures. North's tiny gymnasium set the stage for the final regular season game where, in a heated contest, Central trimmed the Mustangs 70-60, and ran its season mark to an excellent 12-7.





LITTLE IS AS little does—Size isn't all there is to basketball. Here two Bobcats prove all it takes is practice. Here 5'-10" Clint Rogel (left) buckets a layup against South Mountain, while 6'-3" Randy Lindner (right) drives for paydirt in West High game. Basketball scores can change in seconds, as excited fans have discovered.

In Tourney With Fire 'n Fight

The Bobcats really started to roll during the District Tournament, and on successive nights, polished off St. Mary's 75-59, and Phoenix Union 72-57, and won the right to play in the State Tournament with unbeaten powers Tucson and Flagstaff, and rival South Mountain.

On March 2, the Bobcats opened with Tournament favorite Tucson and throughout the first half continued their fine shooting, strong defense, and hustle to lead the Badgers at half-time, 32-19. The intermission break put new life into Tucson, however, and they caught the Bobcats in the fourth quarter and went on to grab a thrilling 54-52 win. The loss dropped Central from the Championship Bracket and pitted them with South Mountain for consolation. Once again, over-all hustle and rebounding strength enabled the Bobcats to whip South 67-58 and take third place in State Tourney. Not quite State Champs, but . . . . almost!

JUNIOR VARSITY squad, with a 6-11 season, anticipates better things next year. SEATED: Hopkins, Cooper, Colwell, Johnson, Sonntag, Noble. STANDING: J. Shultz, manager; Follett, Frantz, Hienton, Wallace, Ryan, Pence, Sherer, Sachs, Coach Phil Kemp. Junior Varsity squad members who were not pictured: Bodenhorn and King.

If You Lose, Philosophize!

You don't have to win them all to have a good year in the game called "basketball".

That's the philosophy of the Junior Varsity basketball team, which notched a 6-11 record in AA competition. Lacking experience, the team still gave every opponent a scrapping game; but lack of depth proved slightly devastating, as the squad soon learned.

According to Coach Kemp, the team's real enemy from the start was illness. The squad didn't reach full strength until midway in the season. Eight members were out with illness when the Bobcats met Camelback in January.

Top scorer, with 154 points, was Mike Johnson, with an average of 10.2 points per game. Although Joe Hienton compiled fewer points (115), he topped Mike's points-per-game average with 10.6, and his 46 per cent free throw average with 65 per cent.

Highlight of the season was wins over North and South, both thrilling contests. Central held a 22 point lead over South going into the final period, but had to fight to squeeze out a 2 point victory. The Bobcats used superior defense and free throw percentage to down a stubborn North High School by 13 points.

"Some of the boys on this year's squad should get considerable playing time on next year's varsity," noted Coach Kemp. Those singled out for possible varsity promotion were Larry Cooper, Johnson, Hienton, Chuck Ryan, Dan Pence, Steve Sachs, and Doug Sherer.

Freshman Hoopsters Won 21-9

Freshman basketball teams finished the season with a combined record of 21 wins and only 9 losses.

Sparked by the consistent and aggressive play of Cal Ryan, Walter Guy, Jim Palmer, Dick Coffinger, and Keith Zimmerman, Mr. Tom Bennett's team compiled a 13-4 record. Losing only to North, Mesa, and Phoenix Union, this team had a 33.6 defensive average and a 46.0 offensive average. Every Bobcat played to win every minute he competed in the game.

Leading scoror was Cal Ryan, with a 13.0 average. Jim Palmer averaged almost nine points a game. Dick Coffinger was leading rebounder, with 24 grabs. Walter Guy led in greatest number of assists.

While dropping some close games, Mr. Eulberg's team finished with a respectable 8-5 season mark. Outstanding were Ed Gallardo, Jon Daugherty, Bill Adams, and Bill Hume. Leading scorers were Gallardo, Hume, and Daugherty, in respective order.

Roll 'Em Boys! Central's grapplers worked harder than ever trying to build a winning season, but the odds were heavy and so was the opposition! Illness plagued many Bobcat wrestlers and we wound up winning two of 11 matches, placing 13th in the state's ranking. Consistent winners were Dave Rhodes, 120; Mike Johnson, 154; Bob Price, 165; Stan Gilliam, 191. TOP picture shows varsity (front row) Trent, Ritchie, Rhodes, Boyle, Sandlin, Hines; (back) Gilliam, Coach O'Jay Bourgeois, Mallory, Follett, Price Seavers, Coach Trimmer, and Johnson. Racquet Men Have Big Year

Central fielded another successful tennis team for the 1961-62 season. Under the energetic leadership of Coach John Hardaway, the Bobcat net squad compiled an excellent 10-3 near-championship record.

Although there were no individual stars, the team was extremely well-balanced. The only losses were to West High and Mesa, all by heart-breaking 4-3 scores.

Varsity lettermen included seniors Dave Blende, Butch Dellinger, and Bob Law; juniors Paul Hartsfield and Bill Cross; freshmen Phil Robinson and John Kerensky.

Next year Central moves into the newly-created Class AA tennis conference. With four returning lettermen, Central should be a strong contender for the state championship.

Cats Make Baseball Progress

At Central, progress is our most important product! Take a look, for instance, at this year's varsity baseball season compared to the 1961 record: 10 won, 6 lost in 1962 to a 9-9 standoff the previous year. Moreover, declares Coach Ruman, the Bobcats have 18 innings yet to play, for a possible 12-6 windup.

Speed and control marked the performance of Central's Bob Fellers: Orwig, 6-2; Randy Lindner, 3-4; and Doug McAdam, with 1-0.

WHAM! Dan Smith pokes out a long hit at CeHS in tilt with Pueblo. Also shown: Coach Leitsch, Bell, and Christopherson.

Slide!

CALL ME Dusty! Bobcat Dain Inman heads for paydirt in a cloud of the same. Game was with Camelback, which Central won by a score of 3-2.

Many Cats Were Outstanding

"We consider it a very gratifying season with the best pitching ever," the coach added. Outstanding players also included Jim Stitt, Bill Wise, Mike Foley, Bob Kaufman, and Dain Inman. The entire team sparkled in all facets of the diamond. Plenty of hits and a minimum of errors, summed up Mr. Ruman. That certainly adds up to a lot of satisfaction.

Season's scores (Central first mentioned) went like this: CeHS 3, Mesa 2; Hayden, 16-6; North High 4-1; Phoenix Union 4-1; West High 4-6; South Mountain 6-7; Camelback 0-2; Carl Hayden 0-1; Yuma 7-2; St. Mary's 8-1; North High 6-8; Mesa 0-2; West High 2-1; Pueblo 11-5; Phoenix Union 7-1; Camelback 3-2. Two more games yet to be played.

BASES LOADED, Ol' Homerun Harry up; what to do? Bobcat Pitchers Doug McAdam, Randy Linder, and Chuck Orwig think over answers to the problem. Trio proved outstanding in this season's play.

BASEBALL JUNIOR VARSITY (Top Row): Zimmerman, Bodenhorn, Gerrard, Heinton, Brixus, O'Brien, Sherer, Frantz, Barry. CENTER: Varnes, mgr.; Cooper, Palmer, Stitt, Sachs, Johnson (cap down), Rogel. BOTTOM: Coach Kemp, Colwell, Mueller, Smith, and Hornbeck. Eight of these players are sure to star in 1963.

Batter Up . . . Let's Play Ball!

Play ball! Central's J. V. baseball team had its woes this year, but still they emerged with a 10-9 won-lost record. The basic rule in all sports, hustle and spirit, was very much present in the team, Coach Phil Kemp assured. A young team it was — having three freshmen on the first string.

One worry that gave the coach anxious moments was the team's inconsistency. Says Mr. Kemp, "We won our first four games, and then — lost the next four." The team's hitting was a bit inconsistent, but on the whole, pretty good. Batting average was a fair .238.

Pitcher Keith Zimmerman, a freshman, turned in a 3-4 won-lost record, and Central has high hopes also for many of his teammates.

THREE-POINT landing! Cooper demonstrate slide technique as Catcher Hornbeck blocks plate with ball. Watching are Bodenhorn and Zimmerman.

YOUR TURN! In the Tucson Relays John Anderson hands the baton to Dave Humphreys. Note Anderson is leading.

It's An Open Challenge To All

Of all the high school sports, track offers the greatest challenge — and opportunity — to the boy interested in self-development. No matter how puny or fat, tall, or short, there's a place for him in the track program. Moreover, he can train himself to exceed his fondest dreams in coordination, if not speed and strength. Success goes along with perseverance.

Central's Bobcat Track Squad started the season in a spectacular fashion, with some important victories. But Fate can be discouraging, at times, and injuries crippled seven of our top athletes. Result was a 3 win, 3 loss record instead of the hoped-for championship. Meanwhile, the cindermen broke four school records and tied one, to every Bobcat's delight.

LIKE A BIRD:! Bobcat Pole Vaulter Dick Davies soars over the crossbar at 13' ¼" during the double-dual meet at Phoenix Union Stadium.

Many proved to be record breakers.

We Set New School Records

OOOFF! IT TAKES plenty of oomph to heave that heavy shot any distance. But Ed Hedges can do it . . . 49 feet, 7¼ inches, to be exact. His toss broke the Central High School record.

Bobcat Mike Box sets a new mark for the high hurdles, with a time of 15.7. Long John Anderson broke his own half-mile record with a fast 1:58.1 running. Then the Mile Relay Team of Danny Walrath, Richard Ash, Roy Malody, and Anderson not only broke the school record with a speedy 3:28.0, but was also ranked first in the state.

Down went the shot put record when Ed Hedges tossed the heavy ball 49 feet, 7¼ inches. Richard Ash, in his first attempt at the 100 yard dash, tied the Central record of 10.3. Other Central track men ranked among the top 10 in Arizona: 440 Race — John Anderson, 50.8; Dan Walrath, 51.4; Richard Ash 51.5; Roy Malody, 51.9. In the pole vault: Dick Davies went up and over for 13′ 1½″, and Mike Welcome soared to 12 feet 6 inches.

Exertion Builds Better Bodies . . .

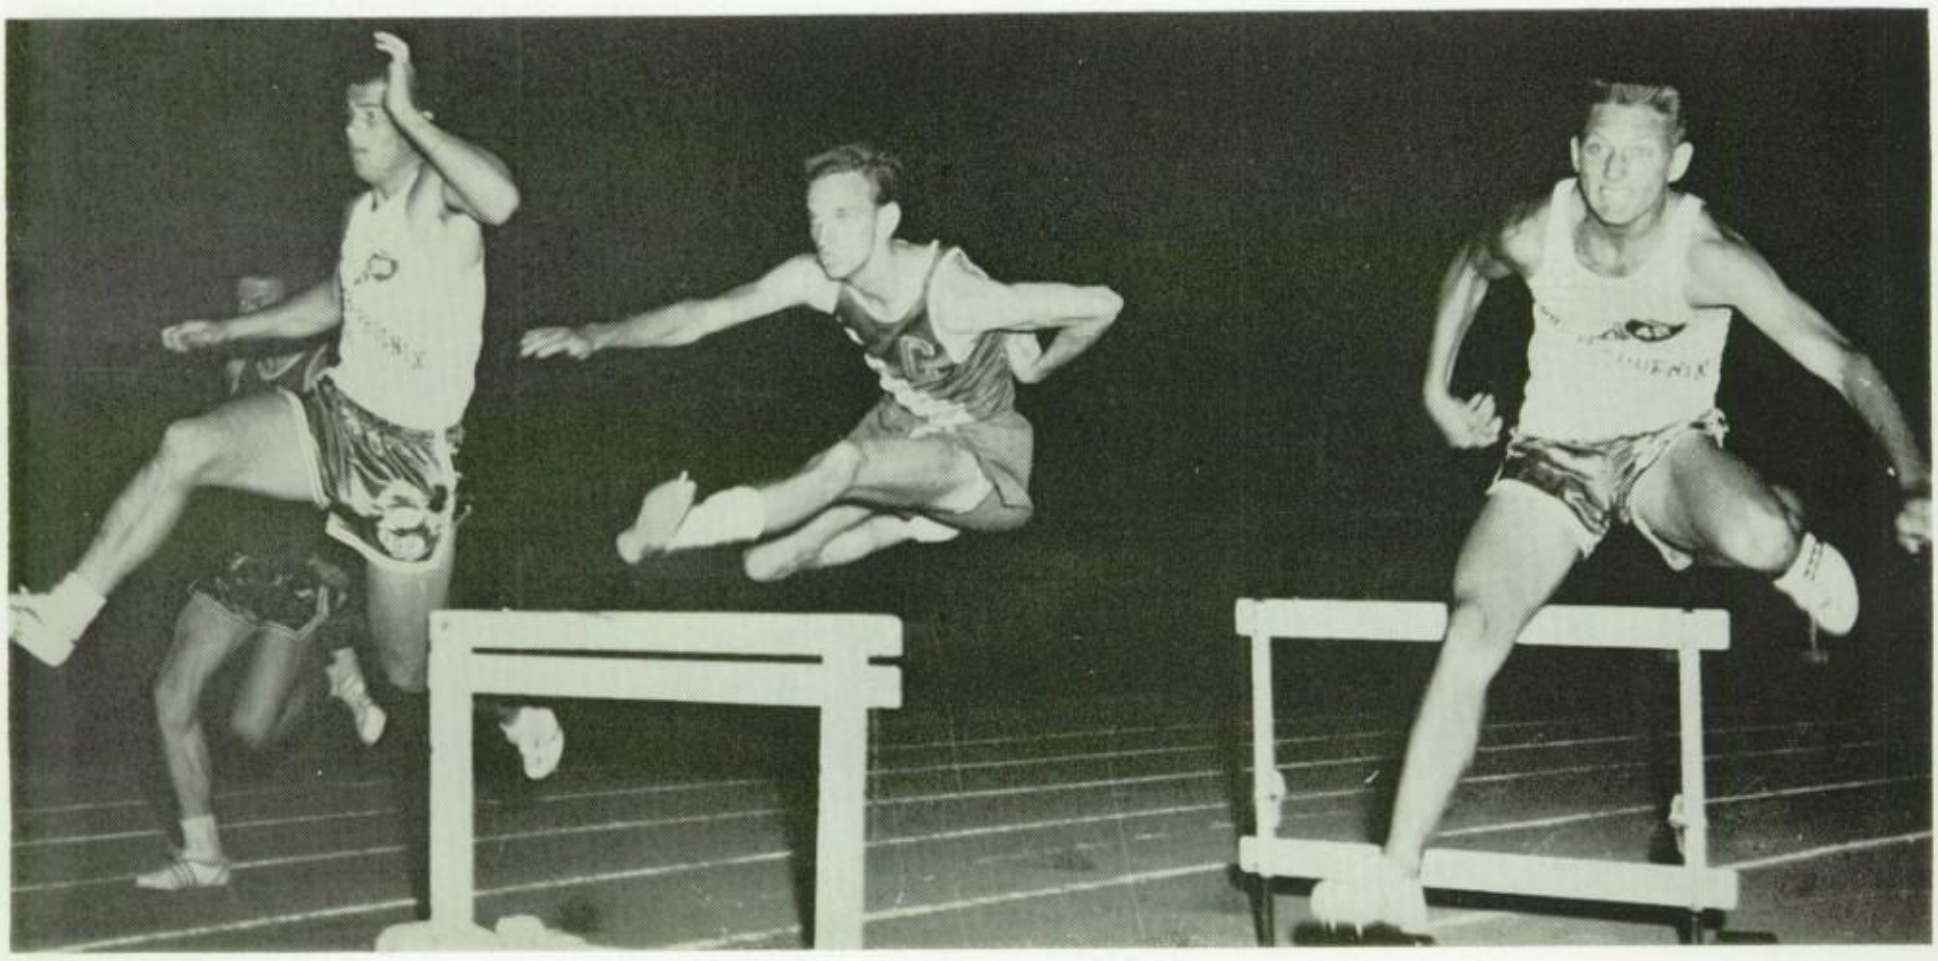
Experience Gets You Places

Junior Varsity and Freshman track squads won few medals but gained valuable experience, increased speed, and healthy habits that should prepare them for varsity competition next spring. Because of the small number of participants, the freshmen were unable to compile an outstanding season record. However, Dickey, Christopherson, and Bell established new frosh records and showed great promise.

Junior Varsity finished the season with a 4 won, 3 lost record while establishing a strong background for future varsity participation. It was the opinion of Coaches Bennett and Leitsch that Murray, Noble, Crecelius, and Halfin should be of varsity caliber in 1963. Brightest star in the underclass group was James Dickey, who excelled in distance running, setting records in both the mile and the half-mile runs.

THERE HE FLIES! Low hurdles offer challenge to Jack Parrish at Phoenix Union double-dual. His time: 21.1.



MODERN DIANAS take aim! Rhoda Heller, Debby Trask, Claudia Wilcox, Kay Vanatter, and Judy Turnbull are the five girls who represented Central at the State Archery meet in 1962. They took the following places: First in Flights A and B, Thirds in Flight B and the Clout, and second in the Wand.

CENTRAL'S only graduating senior on the Varsity team is Marti Blumberg. Marti led the team most of the season on the No. 1 position. Marti represented Central at the State Tennis Tournament in Tucson in April.

You Gain Status By Taking Part

IT'S MORE FUN if you are one of the gang! So it is with Girls' Athletic Association, as active a group as Central High School can claim on campus. Sparked by an athletic program based on points to be acquired only by participation, the club has seen interest rise rapidly in the last three years. The girls enjoy healthy competition in badminton, tennis, golf, archery, and the like as well as participation in extras such as candy and cookie sales to add loot to the GAA treasury.

The Varsity finished this season with a fine seven win three lost record. JV won eight, lost one. Marti Blumberg, Sheila Laughlin and Susie Parker represented Central at the State Tennis Tournament in Tucson. Susie is the first girl in the history of Central to make the Varsity her freshman year.

SHARP ON THE TURF! Playing on this year's Varsity Golf Team were, from left, Claudia Vines, Karen Hoffman, Diane Crayton, Fredi Kalina and Chris Zivney. We had a favorable season this year. Going to the State Meet, Chris, Fredi, Karen and Diane took 3rd, 4th 8th and 16th places from a competitive field of 36 girls.

BIRD WATCHERS ANONYMOUS! Girls' Varsity and Junior Varsity Badminton teams had a great season. STANDING are Jeanette Cooper, Janet Wilson, Linda Lollis, Carol Jacobson, Carolyn Longrie, Susan Hammon. SEATED: JV Players Fran Johnson, Sandy Thornton, Grace Wagner, Juliett Julian, Dede Turken, Cindy Citron. Varsity won nine matches and lost only two. The JV won 10, lost only one. State Badminton tourney winners were Cooper, first place; Flight A singles; Wilson, first place Flight B singles; Jacobson, Hammon, second place doubles.

GAA CANDY SALE netted needed money. Pictured here are the Girls' Athletic Association officers all set for sales campaign. GAA also sponsored the popular "Sagebrush Swing", only Far Western dance of the year.

Active, Happy And Ethereal . . .

With many special courses offered, Advanced Dance is one class highly sought after. Requirements are one year of Physical Education and one year of Beginning Dance. This group completed several programs with West High; included were the Northern Arizona Dance Clinic and the Spring Concert. They also were invited to conduct a symposium at Tempe Union this year. Though this class seems to be suspended in air at times, they really exploit some of their creative routines. The girls contend that contemporary dance is definitely the "dance of the future."

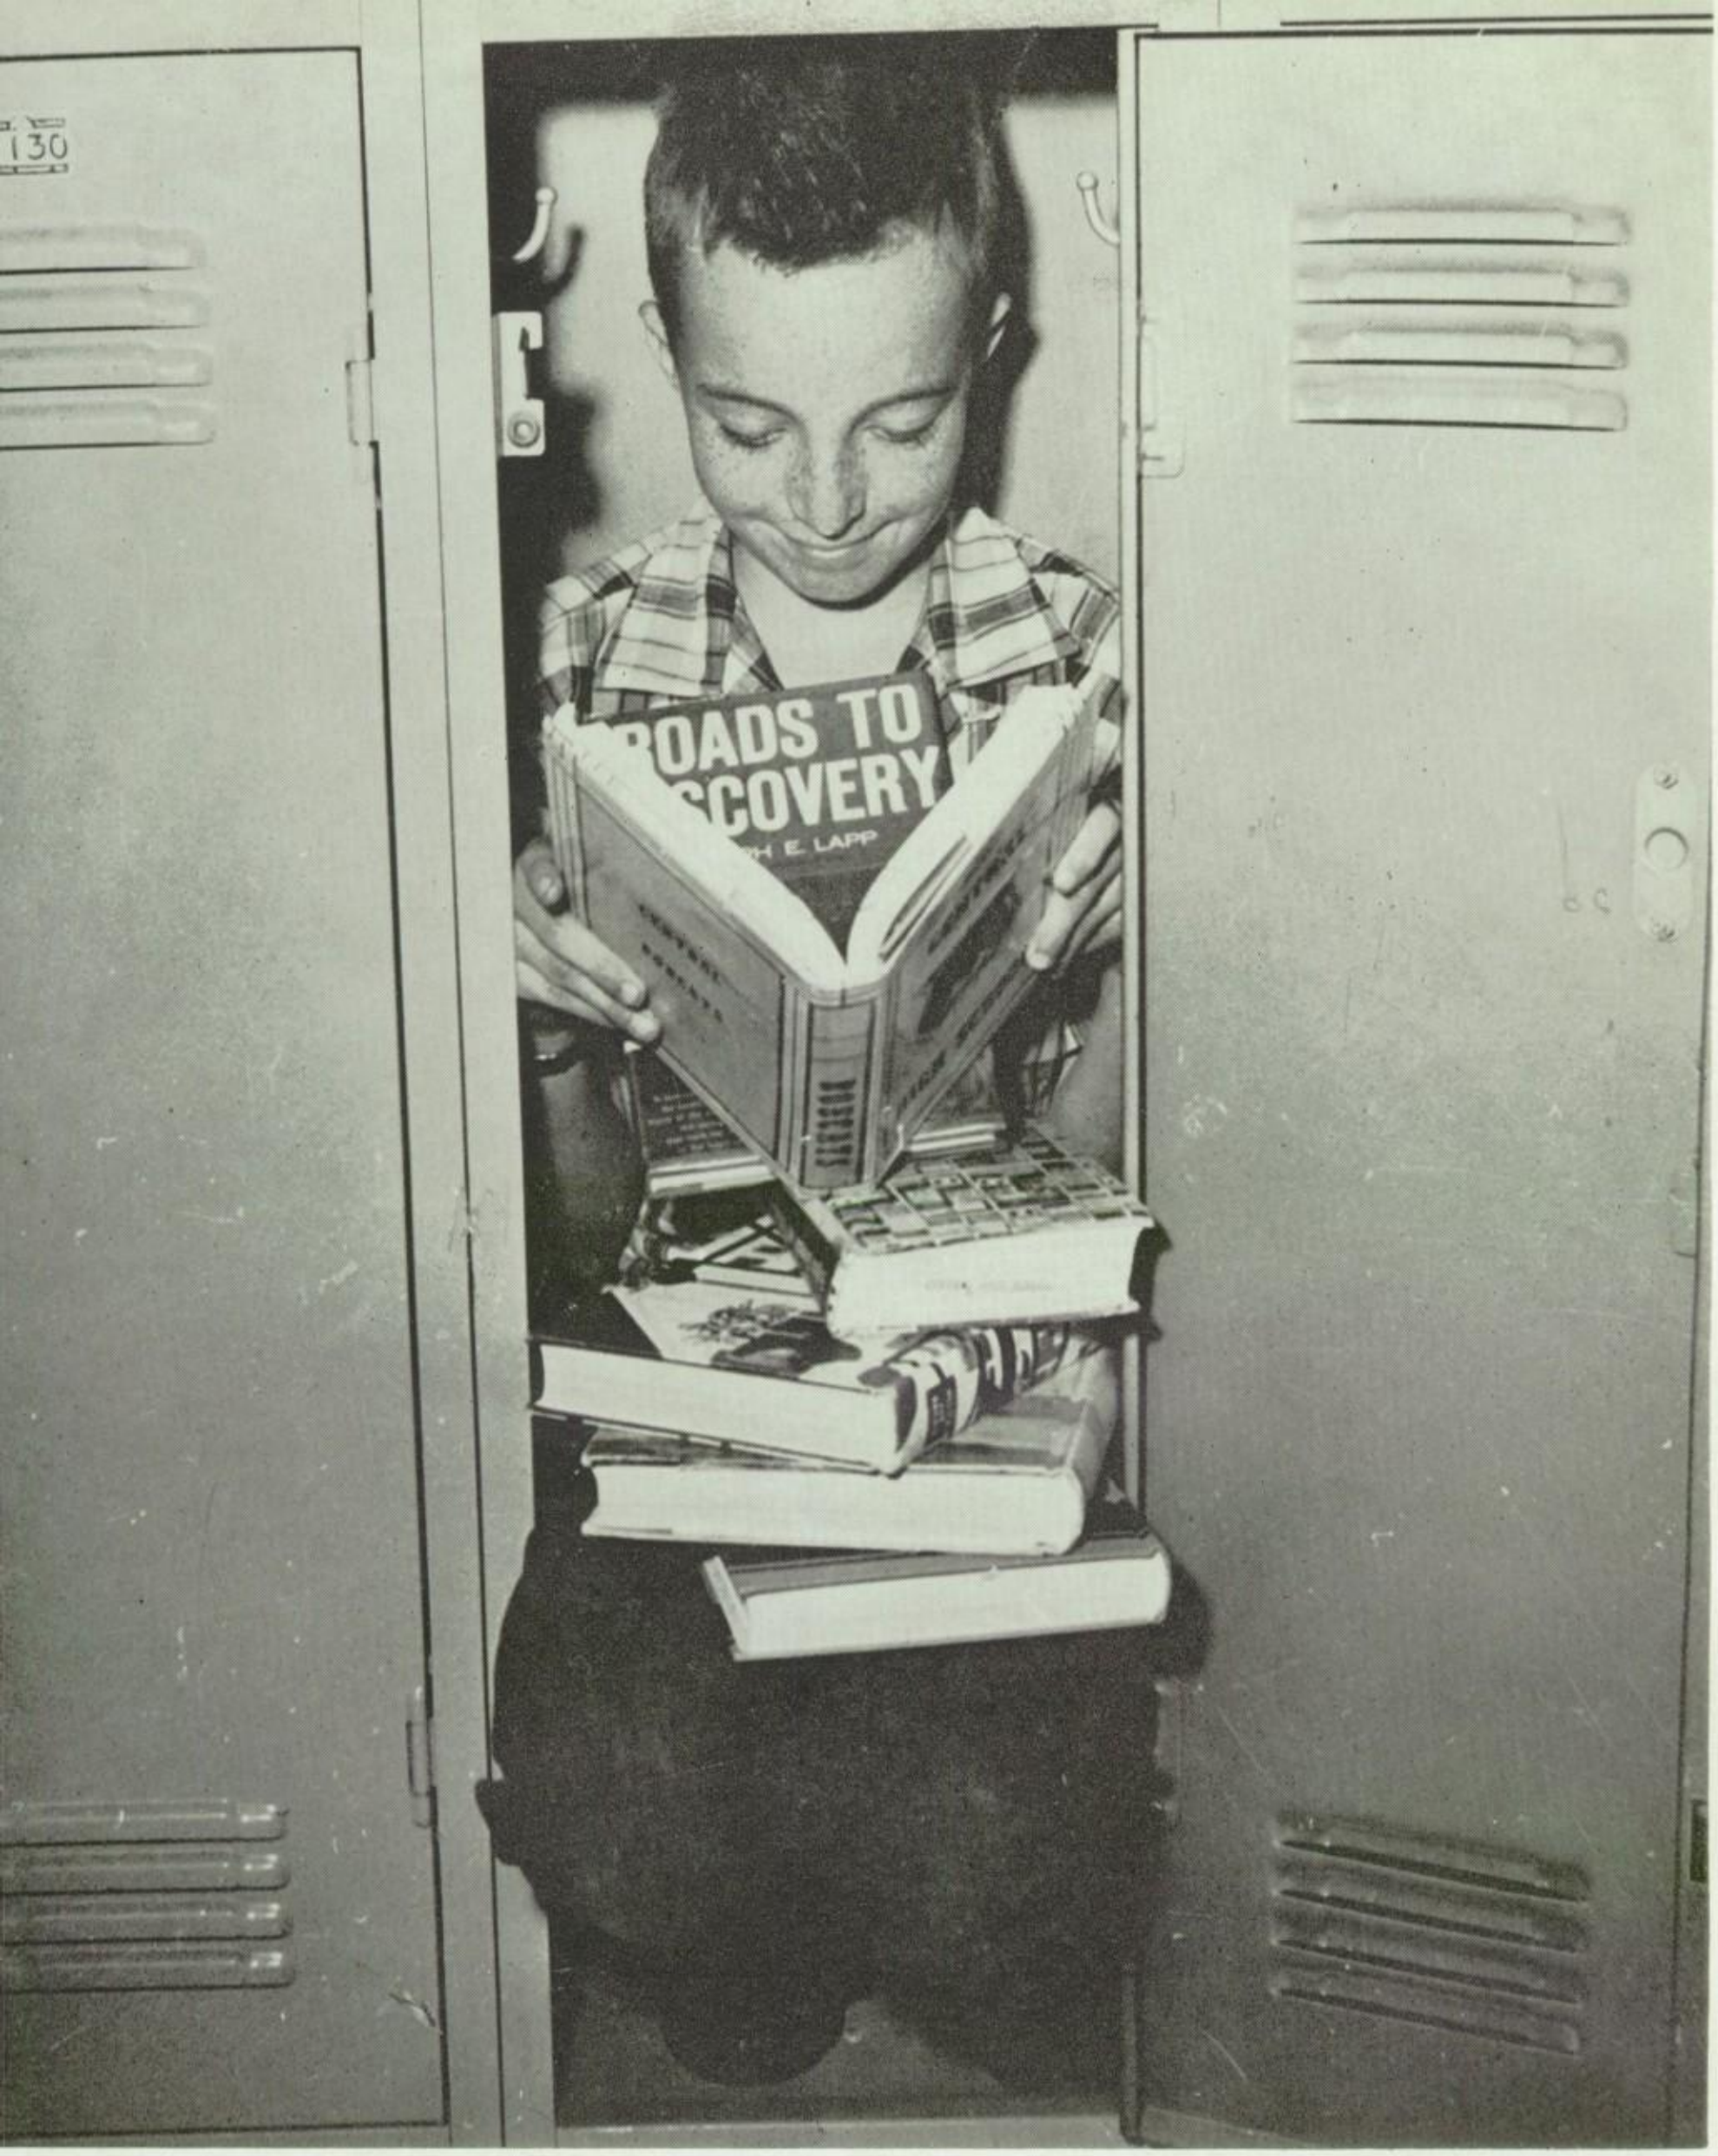
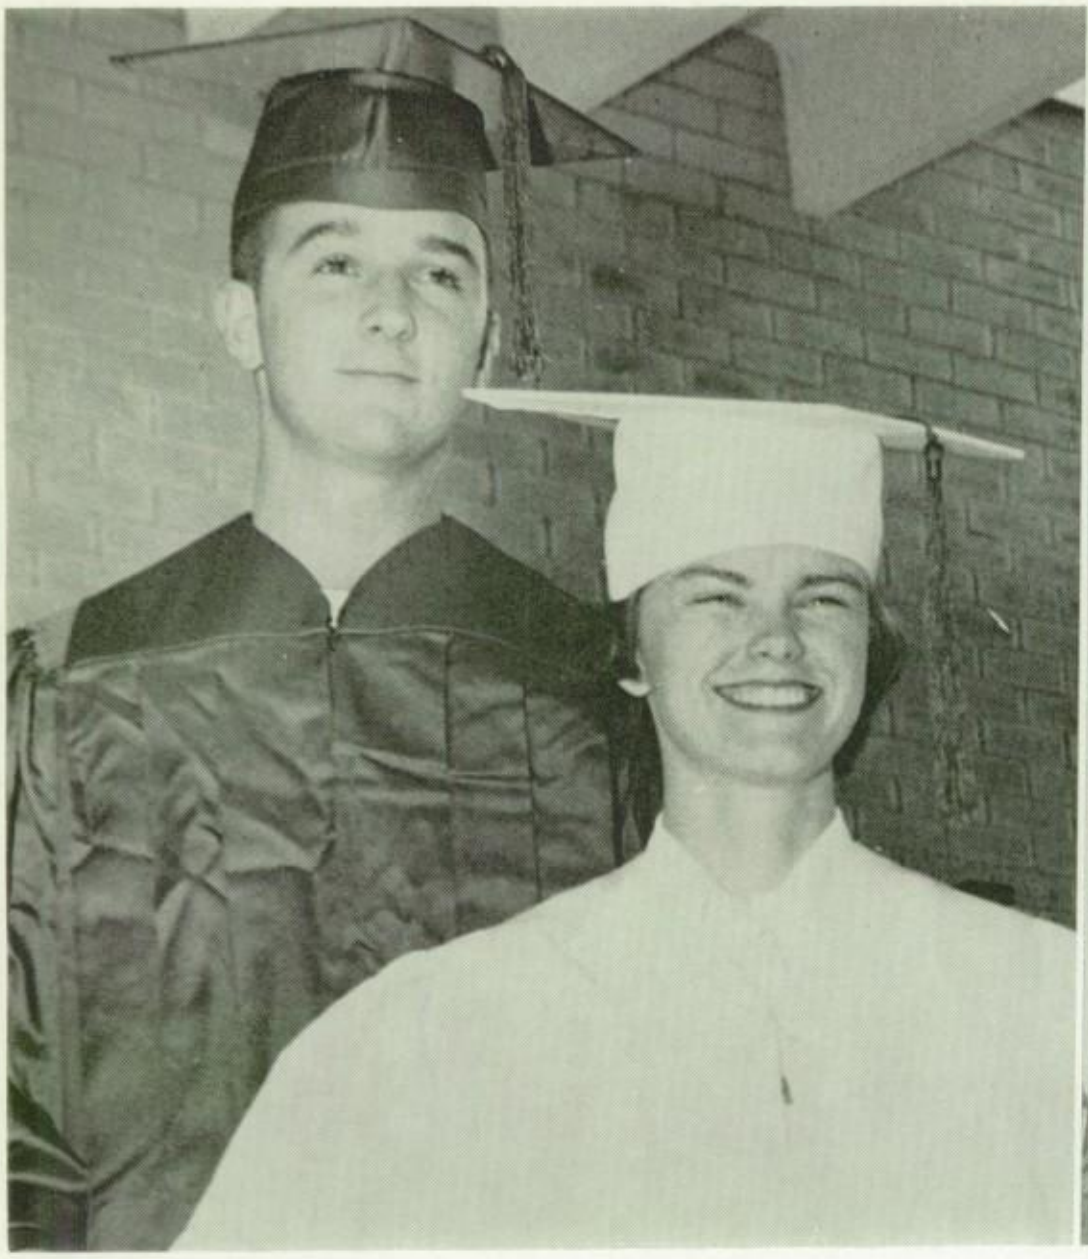
Championships Well Earned

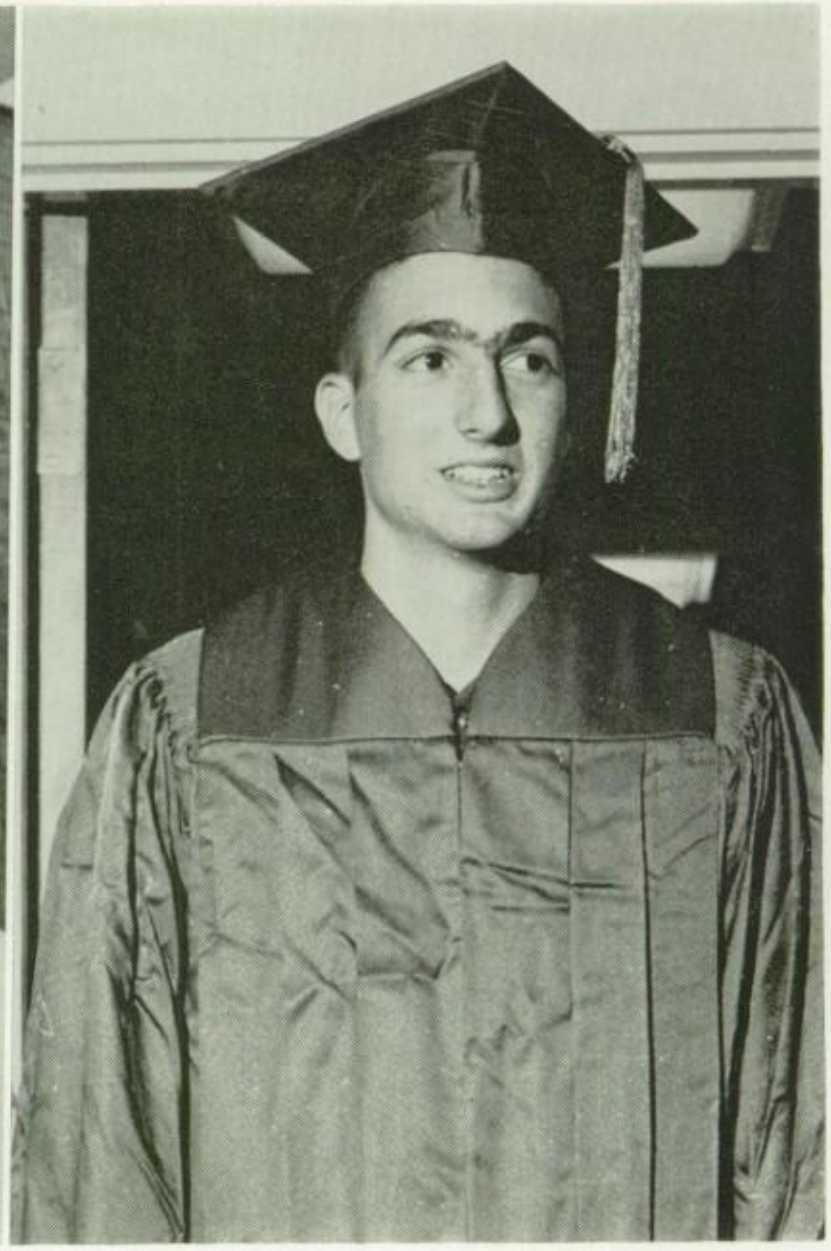
BADMINTON leaders who took second place in State Doubles are Susan Hammon and Carol Jacobson. Central was the only school in Arizona to have all three entries in the championship games. RIGHT: Claudia Wilcox and Kay Vanatter are shown here with the first place trophies they won at the State Archery Meet this year. Claudia won first place in Flight A and Kay took first place in Flight B. Archery is fast winning prominence at Central.



Postscripts

IT'S TIME to wind this annual up; but first, we must crowd in a few last-minute items, a few overlooked pictures. And, yes, our advertising!





SPOKESMEN for the Class of '62 have that happy, look-forward attitude about tomorrow. FROM LEFT: Valedictorians Tom Liston and Roberta Erickson proudly model graduation robes. That goes for Salutatorian Sam Mardian.

Goodbye, Classmates, For Now . . .

FINAL GATHERING: That Farewell Assembly will be a reinactment of this one, pictured during the goodbye ceremonials of the Class of '61. Then on to an adventurous summer, a new job, or enrollment in college. Excitement? Sure. But we'll never forget Our Life at Central and what those four years have done to prepare us for the many tomorrows. It's a big world, crowded with problems. We're ready to tackle our share of them!

Keeping Us Sociable

SOCIAL COMMITTEE members include Carmel Dunn, Marty Shultz, Randy MacDonald, Glenda Davis, Linda Arnote, and Carolyn Boyer.

Seniors Had A 'Colossal' Year

Senior Girls' League, headed by Sue Peden, managed to keep busy with many a project. They made and sold traditional pom pons for Color Day; helped plan and serve at the Faculty Tea; adopted a needy family at Thanksgiving time. It was the senior girls who initiated the first "Colossal Cookie Sale" to raise money for a Christmas family. Girls dressed in big bows, and with painted freckles on their faces, gave us a new angle on salesmanship.

Social Committee really socialized this year! With Linda Arnote as chairman, the group sponsored every student body informal dance. But there was a difference this year. Every event had its particular favor — all delicious.

Social Committee members worked overtime to add spice in other ways. They helped to brighten the Dads' Club variety program in April. All of us will remember with pleasure the very first student body barbecue-dance.

BEARDS OF THE PROPHETS! Comes a time when every boy wants to prove he can raise a beard . . . but he might have to wait a few years until Nature gives him the needed nudge. Not so the big boys on our faculty! They prove their hirsute hardiness each Rodeo Day. Some like the results so well they dodge the razor for weeks afterward.
